November 5, 2023

Dear All, Christ's Peace!

Prayerfully Honoring Our Beloved Dead – This year we will continue our recent practices of prayerfully honoring our beloved dead. Once again, we will arrange:

Trees of Remembrance – These are in two groups. The first contains the names of the recently deceased (i.e., those who have died since October 15, 2022). The other group includes the names of deceased children and grandchildren of parishioners – regardless of when they died.

Memorial Scrolls – These are posted on the church's north and south walls. They include the names of our deceased loved ones, as they will appear in the new necrology. The names are arranged according to the month in which the person died.

Prayers at Every Mass – At every November Mass, we will add a prayer for all the people whose names are displayed in church (and those whom we meant to include). We will use the old favorite "Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord . . . ."

Arranging Mass Intentions – The Parish Book of Mass Intentions opens on Sunday, November 12, after the 8:00 am Mass. Each parishioner can arrange up to five intentions between November 12 and February 1. More intentions can be arranged after that. Please pick up a schedule of "Mass Intention Office Hours" in the Gathering Space and plan to come during those hours.

Memorial Christmas Trees – Reserve your tree now! The trees are available at the same low price of $100 and of course scholarships are available..

Save the Date—Installation of Memorial Christmas Trees – Saturday, November 25, 9:00 am. Huge fun!

Our New Associate Director of CCD? – Do you have great organizational skills, enjoy meeting people, and would like to work 20-25 hours per week? Know someone who fits that bill? Let Father Hank know.

Pavilion Progress – These builders are impressive. They keep achieving their weekly objectives. It is good fun to watch it all go up. Say a prayer for the builders' safety and for continued bonhomie with the inspectors and permit folks. After the building goes up, the concrete goes down, the wires go through, the seed goes all around, then the best part goes in – YOU!

With even more and more gratitude for the privilege of being your pastor, and with big blessings,

Fr. Hank

Come Aside and Rest

"Come away to a deserted place all by yourselves and rest a while." (Mk 6, 31)

Going on retreat is a recognized activity in the spiritual life and our Community in the Flemington Carmel is going on retreat in the middle of November. Except, of course, that we aren't going anywhere. We are staying right at home in our monastery.

Why would contemplative nuns have a retreat at all? Isn't a retreat a time of silence and solitude, and don't contemplative nuns already live in silence and solitude? Why do they need more of it?

A retreat is not only a time of silence and solitude; it is also a time of pondering and prayer. It is a time to step back and take a look at one's life. It is especially a time to step out of any rut one has gotten into and re-discover what one's life is about. It is a time to take a look at what I do and why I do it. It is a time to realize again that God is really present and that what I do and think and say really make a difference, even in the silence and solitude of a monastery.

Visit our Monastery at www.flemingtoncarmel.org

Vocation 101

It's National Vocation Awareness Week! What's your parish or Catholic organization doing to promote the call to ordained and religious life in your community? Consider the threefold tasks of "prayer, invitation, and education": to pray for vocations, invite likely candidates to consider them, and educate others about the joy of service to Christ and his church. Also check out the website of the National Religious Vocation Conference. They offer Conversation Cards to keep handy: business-style cards that say "You would make a great priest/ sister/ brother/ nun" on the front. The back reads: "Imagine the possibilities."

THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY'S READINGS: Malachi 1:14b—2:2b, 8-10; 1 Thessalonians 2:7b-9, 13; Matthew 23:1-12 (151). "With such affection for you, we were determined to share with you not only the gospel of God, but our very selves as well."

Monday, Nov 06, 2023

All paths designed to lead to holiness

Some people hear their call early in life, and it's loud and clear. Others grapple longer and harder with figuring out their vocation. Regardless of where you fall on that spectrum of discernment, and no matter what state of life God intends for you, keep in mind during this National Vocation Awareness Week (Nov. 5-11) that we are all called in essence to the same thing. Let the words of Carmelite nun Saint Thérèse of Lisieux to her friend upon her marriage reassure you: "The road we are following is different, however, the goal is the same purpose: to become holy in the way God has traced out for us."

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 11:29-36; Luke 14:12-14 (485). "You will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous."

Tuesday, Nov 07, 2023

Honor wise council

On this day in 680, the Third Council of Constantinople convened. Ecumenical councils summon a representative constituency of church leadership to settle important questions and fine-tune church teaching. Earliest councils, beginning in 325, solidified basics of Christian faith, often tackling heresies about the true nature of Jesus Christ. Later councils wrestled with institutional growing pains. Let us be grateful that our ancestors cared about the deposit of faith enough to gather and debate at length in order to hand down to future generations such as ours the best the tradition has to offer.

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 12:5-16b; Luke 14:15-24 (486). "We, though many, are one Body in Christ and individually parts of one another."

Wednesday, Nov 08, 2023

Act decisively for justice

Today, we remember our forebear Joseph Rummel, the longtime archbishop of New Orleans during the era of Jim Crow segregation in the Deep South. As head of the diocese with one of the largest black populations in the nation, Rummel set out to desegregate local Catholic parishes and schools, including the archdiocesan seminary, beginning in 1948. After a letter from local segregationist Catholics to the pope was rebuffed by the holy father, Rummel declared all parochial schools desegregated in 1962. Famously, he later excommunicated several vocal holdouts who protested his move. Where is such decisive action against racism among bishops today? We are all responsible for opposing injustice. How will you act for the common good?

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 13:8-10; Luke 14:25-33 (487). "You shall love your neighbor as yourself. Love does no evil to the neighbor; hence, love is the fulfillment of the law."

Thursday, Nov 09, 2023

Let the good times roll

Catholics have lots of words with their own twists, and one of them is "feast." While we don't all sit down to a giant meal for every "feast," in some corner of the world, Catholics may well be doing just that. In church language, "feast" means something special is celebrated on a particular day. Feasts range from the death days of saints, to events in Jesus' life, to the foundation of a church with a special history (such as today's feast of the Lateran Basilica). Many feasts have special followings in particular cultures. Let feast days remind you that sometimes devotion also calls for a good party!

FEAST OF THE DEDICATION OF THE LATERAN BASILICA

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezekiel 47:1-2, 8-9, 12; 1 Corinthians 3:9c-11, 16-17; John 2:13-22 (671). "His disciples recalled the words of Scripture, Zeal for your house will consume me."

Friday, Nov 10, 2023

You are simply divine

Known for his accessible preaching style, Pope Leo I helped his fifth-century flock and Christians down through the ages understand more fully the true nature of Christ and his saving gifts. By becoming human, explains Leo, "Jesus assumed the form of a servant without the stain of sin—enhancing what was human, not detracting from what was divine." As children of the light, we share in God's own nature. Therefore, our heads and hearts should reflect this holy inheritance. Or put simply by Leo: "Christian, remember your dignity."

MEMORIAL OF LEO THE GREAT, POPE, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 15:14-21; Luke 16:1-8 (489). "I will not dare to speak of anything except what Christ has accomplished through me."

Saturday, Nov 11, 2023

A veteran worthy of his day

Because Saint Martin of Tours (c. 320-397) was the son of a Roman army officer, he was required by law to serve in the Roman military. Two years after his conversion to Christianity he announced, "I am the soldier of Christ: it is not lawful for me to fight." He was arrested and charged with cowardice. So he volunteered to go into battle unarmed. Before he could make good on his offer, he was discharged from the military. This Veterans Day, we can remember those, like Saint Martin and Venerable Emil Kapaun, Army chaplain, who, for the sake of Christ, go into battle armed only with the love of Christ.

MEMORIAL OF MARTIN OF TOURS, BISHOP

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 16:3-9, 16, 22-27; Luke 16:9-15 (490). "No servant can serve two masters."

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time
