READINGS FOR NEXT WEEK

Isaiah 55:10-11
Romans 8:18-23
Matthew 13:1-23

Dear All. Christ's Peace!

Big summer blessings for all as we say "Goodbye" to the school year and "Hello" to summer. Count on a prayer for your adventures, your idle spells, and your summer experience of prayer, service, and community. And remember to mark your calendar for Thursday, July 27 for Parish Summer Palooza. Please email me with ideas of the best games for people of your age.

Restorations of Pre-Pandemic Mass Customs –

The Return of the Blood of Christ – It is a consolation to see so many receiving the Blood of Christ and it is perfectly understandable that many remain a little cautious. Thanks for your flexibility as we continue to tweak the system.

The Return of the Offertory Processions – Starting September 16, we will ask people to sign up to bring the offertory gifts at the 8:00 and 9:30 Masses. (We already have a procession at the 4:45, and the 11:30 will change significantly this fall.) Stay tuned for details.

The Return of the Altar Servers – We hope to reinstate the altar servers in early October. And we anticipate a shortage! Many of our pre-pandemic altar servers have aged out and the pandemic was not a time to recruit new ones. If you have children in grades 4-12 who might be game, please email Suzanne at skral@sjmillstone.com. Please put "Server" in the subject line.

The Non-Return of Collections – All indicators are that the post-Mass collection system is working well. There are no plans to reinstate the pre-pandemic way of basket-passing.

Will Your Ministry Need Donations of Money or Physical Items? – Victor is already making great strides toward organizing our collections of money and physical items (clothes, books, tools, etc.) Starting in September we will have year-long schedules for monetary donations to the Poor Box and donations of physical items to the collection bins. The planning helps assure that every worthy cause gets support and that you can set giving priorities. If your ministry will need donations of money or physical items, email Victor at vfung@sjmillstone.com. We will continue to collect food every week and we will always respond to disasters.

Sacrament of the Sick – Come September, we will offer 12 scheduled anointings per year. For now, keep letting me know when you are approaching surgery or treatment, or have recently received a significant diagnosis. Remember – it is NOT the sacrament of the dying. It is the Sacrament of the Sick.

Sincere blessings for your summer, Fr. Hank

GOING AWAY MESSAGE

As I begin my new journey, I wanted the opportunity to thank you and our parish for the support, prayers and guidance that you have given me. Georgette and I are extremely appreciative of your support, especially after we lost our older daughter, Nicole. As Georgette said, coming here for the funeral and then the reception was like being cloaked in love. What better witness of being Christ to one another!

I would also like to welcome Kelly Craigle as my replacement. My prayer is that he finds the same support and generosity that has been shown to my family and me. I encourage you to reach out to him as he settles in and introduce yourself. His contact information is 908-864-0369 and kcraigle@sjmillstone.com.

Last, but not least, I would like to thank Linda Mackiw and our Parish Staff for their support.... and patience over all these years. Linda has been a tremendous gift to our parish and to me. Please keep her, Kelly and our staff in your prayers as they begin the transition this summer.

HILLSBOROUGH FOOD BANK

Hunger doesn't take a vacation. Summer is the season when parishioners travel and donations to the food bank typically dwindle a little. But the folks who need the food do not travel and still need the food. Please be as generous as you are able.

Thank You!

MAY BABY CRIB COLLECTION

The Respect Life and Pregnancy Aid Center Ministries extend a great big thank you to all parishioners for your generous contributions to the May Baby Crib Collection. The response was overwhelming!

Pregnancy Aid and Information Center was amply stocked with diapers, layettes, baby and children's clothing, grooming items and supplies. YOU have helped to benefit, provide support and improve the lives of needy mothers and their children.

Fran Johnson, Director of Pregnancy Aid and Information Center recently stated that "Our center is such a beacon of light for our mothers, who need assistance in raising their babies and youngsters. It also is an inspiration for all of us who volunteer there, as well as those who donate so generously. We are a small microcosm of the beauty of working together and helping those who need a helping hand."

The unexamined life is not liberating

Interested in ministering, healing, and caring? Intrigued by dream analysis, speaking in tongues, or miracles? Seeking transcendence or the art of meditation? Does your attention reside at the intersection of faith and psychology? If any of the above concern you, there's a Morton Kelsey book with your name on it. Episcopal priest, Jungian therapist, and prolific author, Kelsey notes that we're controlled by what we assume and have never thoughtfully considered: "You can't come to a new point of view until you realize what your brainwashing has been." Take the first step toward inner freedom. Review your assumptions.

FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY'S READINGS: Zechariah 9:9-10; Romans 8:9, 11-13; Matthew 11:25-30 (100). "Although you have hidden these things from the wise and the learned you have revealed them to little ones."

Don't let setbacks throw you

The first bishop of Denver, Joseph Machebeuf, who died on this day in 1889, was the basis for the character Joseph Vaillant in Willa Cather's 1927 novel Death Comes for the Archbishop. Machebeuf was born in France and his character's French last name means "courageous"—for promoting the faith, in his case. In real life, Machebeuf was thrown from a carriage and disabled from his injuries, but went on to found schools and hospitals while overseeing the enormous growth of the Catholic population in Colorado. May his life inspire you to be valiant in overcoming challenges in your service to God.

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 28:10-22a; Matthew 9:18-26 (383). "Courage, daughter! Your faith has saved you."

The Bible according to Benedict

When a team of theologians, medievalists, and artists began work on Saint John's Illuminated Bible in 1995, certain core values of Benedictine spirituality served as guiding principles. The finished product—the first hand-wrought copy of the Bible since the printing press in the 1400s—embodies some undeniable basics from Benedict's Rule, such as: the holiness of ordinary objects (simple goose quills for calligraphy) and the dignity of manual labor (vellum pages were hand-sanded repeatedly). But it's the larger themes of hospitality, transformation, and justice for God's people that make it a rich text for our time. Contemplate this Bible's full significance at the Library of Congress website.

MEMORIAL OF BENEDICT, ABBOT

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 32:23-33; Matthew 9:32-38 (384). "I have seen God face to face," he said."

Foundation for a just society

The Knights of Peter Claver was incorporated on this day in 1911, the fruit of a collaboration between three Josephite priests and three laymen in Mobile, Alabama. The black Catholic fraternal order was founded for African Americans in an age when much of the U.S. Church was still segregated and many Knights of Columbus councils refused to accept black members. Named for the historic Spanish Jesuit missionary to South America, the order has since gone on to incubate justice-minded Catholics in the United States and also in Saint Peter Claver's own mission base of Colombia. The organization added a Ladies Auxiliary in 1922, which now outstrips the men in membership and activity. If you're interested in the intersection of the Catholic faith and social justice, support the Saint Peter Claver Foundation.

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 41:55-57; 42:5-7a, 17-24a; Matthew 10:1-7 (385). "Go . . . to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. As you go, make this proclamation: 'The Kingdom of heaven is at hand.'"

Thursday, Jul 13, 2023

Let it reign

The kingdom of God, or reign of God, means many things to many people. The term appears in today's gospel and in fact appears in the New Testament alone well over 100 times. Theologians have discussed its meaning over the centuries. They propose that in various contexts it refers to a heavenly reward, to Jesus himself, to the faithful as they pursue righteousness on Earth, to a culture based on love, mercy, and justice, and other variations on these themes. Like any big concept, there might not be one "right answer." How do you envision the kingdom of God?

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 44:18-21, 23b-29; 45:1-5; Matthew 10:7-15 (386). "As you go, make this proclamation: 'The Kingdom of heaven is at hand.'"

Friday, Jul 14, 2023

A touch of faith

"She who gropes her way" is an English translation of the Mohawk name Tekakwitha, Saint Kateri's second given name. That epithet is likely related to the fact that an outbreak of smallpox left Kateri orphaned, scarred, and visually impaired at the age of 4. As Kateri felt her way through her short life, she experienced the glories of nature, the riches of Catholic teachings, and the dignity of every soul. With help from family, friends, and a host of strangers, she discovered her true calling: to dedicate her life to God and give voice to God's truths. Pray to Saint Kateri that your vocation becomes crystal clear.

MEMORIAL OF KATERI TEKAKWITHA, MOHAWK

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 46:1-7, 28-30; Matthew 10:16-23 (387). "Do not worry about how you are to speak or what you are to say. You will be given at that moment what you are to say."

Saturday, Jul 15, 2023

What we leave behind

History was not kind to the remains of Saint Bonaventure (1221-74), an Italian cardinal and minister general of the Franciscans. His many works of philosophy and theology are carefully preserved. But his body? Not so much. His torso was burned by invading Huguenots in 1562. His head, discovered to be uncorrupted 160 years after his death, was lost in the destruction of a church during the French Revolution. Only a lone arm has survived, resting in a church in Bagnoregio, Italy. Though your body will not last, your legacy can. Make it a good one.

MEMORIAL OF BONAVENTURE, BISHOP, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 49:29-32; 50:15-26a; Matthew 10:24-33 (388). "Do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul."

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time
