Dear All, Christ's Peace!

Bereavement Group – Good friends at the Metuchen Cathedral are once again running an 8-week bereavement group for people who have recently lost a loved one. The group meets every Wednesday from October 4 through November 15 from 7:00 to 9:00 pm. There is no fee, but you need to pre-register by calling Danielle at 732-763-0972.

Our New Parish e-Publication – On the First Wednesday of every month, starting September 6, we will email good news about parishioners. It will include news about who has been baptized and who has been married or celebrated a big anniversary. We will use the Wednesday news to share updates about new parishioners and about who has graduated. Also, remember the newsy part of "This Week," called "The Pastor's Brag"? People liked that very much but we lacked a way to sustain it. Now we have it and will be inviting you to click the tab that will appear in each week's "This Week," to share good news about yourself or another parishioner. Think of it as "Page Six" meets the old "Holy Name Honor Roll."

We Need Altar Servers! – The pandemic wiped us out. We need to reboot and recover. Youngsters in grades 4-12 make excellent servers and learn much from serving. (They also get a great view of Mass!) If you are in grades 4-12, or if you have children in grades 4-12, or influence people in that category, help! Help us rebuild the ranks of white-robed apostles. Siblings and cousin combos can form some especially great memories. Sign up in the Gathering Space after Mass on the September 23-24 and September 30 – October 1.

Want to Become a Catholic? Know Someone Who Might? – Our parish's Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (now "OCIA," formerly known as "RCIA"), is now welcoming two types of people: (a) adults who were baptized (as Catholics or in any Christian denomination) but did not pursue later sacraments or religious formation, and (b) people who have not been baptized but want to become Catholics. Might you or someone you know be one such person? Email Suzanne Kral, skral@sjmillstone.com for more information.

Big blessings for all this weekend.

Fr. Hank

CATECHETICAL SUNDAY

September 17

Every year since 1935, on the third Sunday of September the Church acknowledges and honors the dedication of the catechists in the parish community who work to share and teach their faith to our children. It is also a time to honor families and all who are committed to sharing their faith. The theme for this year is "Come to Me all you who labor and are burdened" (Mt 11:28).

The Parish Offices will be closed from Friday, September 1 at 1 PM through Monday, September 4 in observance of Labor Day.

Offices will reopen on Tuesday, September 5. Have a safe, happy and well-deserved holiday!

LAST CALL FOR T-SHIRTS

Does your wardrobe contain a few too many colorful T-shirts? Whose doesn't? This is your chance to repurpose them for God's glory. Gather up your stain-free, recently laundered, big T-shirts (Adult sizes L or XL – or M if it runs big) and bring them to church. Why? Because the folks in the Cramer Hill section of Camden will use them for grocery bags when they obtain food from the "Sisters of St. Joseph Neighborhood Center" SJNC). How? Our parish's recently formed Sewing Brigade will convert many of the T-shirts into shopping bags. People at the SSJNC will convert the rest. So, launder your shirts and bring them to church. The collection runs through the weekend of the parish picnic, September 10. The bins will be in the Memorial Hallway. Questions? Email Victor at vfung@sjmillstone.com.

Thoughts From God's Garden
Sr. Gabriela of the Incarnation, O.C.D.

Praised be Jesus Christ!

The cloister in our Monastery here in Flemington isn't as grand as the Cloisters in New York, but it serves a similar purpose. It is a square courtyard, covered over with a skylight instead of being open to the sky, and from it radiate the various corridors leading to different parts of the Monastery. We often pass one another in the cloister and corridors, and when we do we exchange a greeting: "Praised be Jesus Christ!" "Now and forever."

We praise Him each time we meet one another because He is the one who brings us together. He brings us together in the Church, He brings us together as a religious community, and He brings us together in His Father's love.

In a world and a society that seems to be splintering apart, our simple greeting is an act of trust that true unity is possible in God. We can be one in Him as He asked of His Father. May this unity spread more and more among us.

Praised be Jesus Christ in each of you who read this!

It's a wonderful life

Our days are engulfed in chaos, conflict, and dispiriting news. Then along comes a director like Frank Capra (1897-1991), churning out what have been called "fantasies of good will," imposing order with his ragged little messiahs who take meaningful stands against king-sized injustices. A self-described "Christmas Catholic," Capra fought his moral battles on the silver screen. He believed each person is "essentially good, a living atom of divinity.... Films must be made to say these things, to counteract the violence and the meanness, to buy time to demobilize the hatreds." Take your stand. Tell a story of hope.

TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY'S READINGS: Jeremiah 20:7-9; Romans 12:1-2; Matthew 16:21-27 (124). "Do not conform yourselves to this age but be transformed by the renewal of your mind."

Monday, Sep 04, 2023

Come aside and rest awhile

In a Prayer for Labor Day, the U.S. bishops invite us to ask God: "Make a place in our hearts for compassion to the men and women who labor tirelessly for basic necessities." Labor has always held a place of dignity within our faith. Scripture tells us that the laborer is worthy of his hire (1 Tim. 5:18), and many a church document, including Rerum Novarum, outline the value of workers and their work: "Justice, therefore, demands that the interests of the working classes should be carefully watched over, so that they who contribute so largely to the advantage of the community may themselves share in the benefits which they create." And, today, in honor of our labor, it's time to take a break.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18; Luke 4:16-30 (431). "Is this not the son of Joseph?"

The first daughter of charity

It's not every day that a Catholic saint is honored with a United Nations resolution. But then, Mother Teresa is hardly an everyday saint. The U.N. honored the famous nun from Kolkata, known the world over for her hands-on care of the poor, with a resolution in 2013. It declared that on the September 5th anniversary of Mother Teresa's death each year, the world would now observe an International Day of Charity. Let's take her at her word: "Love is not patronizing and charity isn't about pity, it is about love. Charity and love are the same—with charity you give love, so don't just give money but reach out your hand instead."

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Thessalonians 5:1-6, 9-11; Luke 4:31-37 (432). "All of you are children of the light and children of the day. We are not of the night or of darkness."

Wednesday, Sep 06, 2023

Pray for the persecuted and forgotten

On this day, many Christians of the Eastern tradition celebrate the feast of Saint Donatian and his companions, a group of lesser-known fifth-century martyrs driven out of North Africa by the Arian King Huneric, who persecuted a great many Trinitarians for their faith. Though we may not today face death for our confession, many of our brothers and sisters around the world do, and it is for them that we must pray with the help of Donatian and all who died for the name of Christ. Even more, we are tasked to help them materially if we can, since—as the Lord says—whatsoever we do for the least of his siblings, we do for him.

TODAY'S READINGS: Colossians 1:1-8; Luke 4:38-44 (433). "We have heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and the love that you have for all the holy ones because of the hope reserved for you in heaven."

Thursday, Sep 07, 2023

School days, Golden Rule days

It's back-to-school season. Learning is foundational to our democracy and also to informed faith. In 2,000 years' time, Christianity has overcome countless heresies (a type of twisting of the belief) and accumulated many saints, martyrs, stories, and traditions. With school back in session, consider sending yourself to "school" to learn more about your own religion. Check out study materials from the U.S. Catholic bishops and formed.org, a program both individuals and parishes can use for faith formation. Make a choice to grow in wisdom and understanding.

TODAY'S READINGS: Colossians 1:9-14; Luke 5:1-11 (434). "Put out into deep water and lower your nets for a catch."

Friday, Sep 08, 2023

A nativity set for the ages

The church officially celebrates three Nativities: the Nativity of Jesus, the Son of God (Christmas); the Nativity of Saint John the Baptist (24 June); and the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary (8 September). These events tell us everything we need to know about God, faith, and the path to salvation. Through Jesus' Incarnation, we learn that God is with us—always and everywhere. Through John's witness we come to understand that we are not God—not even close—and we must prepare ourselves to welcome God's great goodness into our lives. And through Mary, we are shown the meaning of true discipleship—how to answer God's call and follow Christ through the joyful, sorrowful, and luminous mysteries of our lives in faith. Celebrate this dynamic trio by living in their light.

FEAST OF THE NATIVITY OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

TODAY'S READINGS: Micah 5:1-4a or Romans 8:28-30; Matthew 1:1-16, 18-23 (636). "They shall name him Emmanuel, which means 'God is with us.'"

Saturday, Sep 09, 2023

Give us this day some peace

"Racism has been part of the social fabric of America since its European colonization. Whether it be the tragic past of Native Americans, Mexicans, Puerto Ricans, or Blacks, the story is one of slavery, peonage, economic exploitation, brutal repression, and cultural neglect." This observation from the 1979 bishops' pastoral Brothers and Sisters to Us is why the church in the United States has established today as a "Day of Prayer for Peace in Our Communities" to promote healing of the racial divides of our nation. Make an honest examination of conscience regarding your thoughts, words, and deeds toward people of other ethnic and racial backgrounds.

MEMORIAL OF PETER CLAVER, PRIEST

TODAY'S READINGS: Colossians 1:21-23; Luke 6:1-5 (436). "You once were alienated and hostile in mind because of evil deeds."

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time
