Behind the Scenes of This Week's Readings

Today, the First Sunday of Advent, is the beginning of the new Liturgical Calendar. Advent is taken from the Latin word adventus (coming), a translation of the Greek parousia (second coming). Most likely its observance began in the 4th century when the Church began to celebrate Christ's birth. It was a time of penance similar to Lent. It has lasted as long as five weeks and as short as 3 days a week. Most importantly, its early history focused on preparing for the Second Coming of Christ. Not until much later was a remembrance of Christ's birth added to the observance of Advent. Today Advent is four weeks long and celebrates both the remembrance of Christ's birth and the preparation for his Second Coming. To everyone's liking, it is not as penitential as Lent.

Over the last several weeks, the parishioners at St. Joseph Parish in Hillsborough made and delivered 1,000 t-shirt bags to the Sisters of St. Joseph Neighborhood Center. Each bag is used to bundle and distribute frozen meats along with other shopping bags of perishable and nonperishable food to feed a family. That means 1,000 bags equals 1,000 families fed!

The Sisters of Saint Joseph are so very grateful for the “hands-on” action of collecting and sewing the meat bags for our food pantry. The recycled t-shirts are a great way to respect the Earth.

This acknowledgement was posted on Instagram and Facebook by the Sisters of St. Joseph who oversee the Neighborhood Center in Camden...

ON-LINE ADVENT REFLECTIONS

Join Immaculate Conception Seminary School of Theology for our annual daily Advent reflection series on "The Hospitality of Advent" as we prepare for the coming of our Lord at Christmas. Meditations are sent by email from December 3 through December 24.

Consider with us how Mary, Joseph, Elizabeth, and other great figures of the Gospels and Church tradition welcomed Jesus into their hearts.

How might Jesus be beckoning us this Advent to a greater understanding and appreciation of God's desire to come to us, dwell within us, and be welcomed into our homes and hearts? How might this year's Advent be a journey of an ever-deepening hospitality of the heart?

Thoughts From God's Garden

Sr. Gabriela of the Incarnation, O.C.D.

"Tell Him a Welcome"

Carmelites love Christmas!

We love Easter, of course, and we thrill at the thought of the Resurrection, but Christmas has a special place in our hearts. We are utterly delighted that God was born as a baby, that He became human because it is our humanity that He took, and He will have it forevermore! Jesus is God and now He is also made of the same stuff as we are: He has a human soul and body, and He can never ever separate Himself from us!

We love that we share humanity with Him, and though Carmel is an austere place, with a plain building and simple fare, at Christmas we decorate for all we are worth! We hang decorations on anything that will hold them, we sing Christmas carols as part of our prayer time, we have a posada procession throughout the whole monastery, and we have about six different nativity sets besides the crib set up in our chapel.

The Infant in the crib is a special delight for us, and there is a story that St. John of the Cross, who is often portrayed as a solemn killjoy of a saint, once picked up the Infant from the crib and danced around the room with him. We all want to do that every day of our life: to dance through time holding God in our arms and in our hearts!

Choosing the Better Part: A Women's Advent Retreat

Are you a Martha or a Mary? Together, they will help us figure out how to choose the better part, opening our hearts to God's presence even as the holiday season looms.

A season of welcome

The color violet reminds us that a new season has begun: a time to prepare to welcome Christ in our midst for all days and in all persons. Coincidentally this year, Advent starts on the World Day for Persons with Disabilities. How welcoming is our church to the people with physical and mental challenges? Not just improving accessibility with an entrance ramp or elevator but providing accommodations for those with hearing, visual, and intellectual impairments, including for liturgies and sacramental preparation? Take a look around your own parish. Is it true that "all are welcome"?

FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 63:16b-17, 19b; 64:2-7; 1 Corinthians 1:3-9; Mark 13:33-37 (2). "We are the clay and you the potter: we are all the work of your hands."

Iconic inspiration

Think of how much sacred images of Jesus, Mary, angels, and the saints—in painting, stained glass, and sculpture—have filled your life and stimulated your spirit. You might have many sacred images throughout your home. Perhaps you can find them in different public places in your city. Our Catholic churches are certainly full of them. Think of how much they inspire and prompt you to momentary prayer, a fleeting lifting of your heart and mind to God as you pass by them, or to long stretches on your knees, deep in conversation. You can partly thank John Damascene, who defended holy images against iconoclasm, a movement in the eighth century that was opposed to the veneration of icons. Treasure the rich imagery of our tradition.

MEMORIAL OF JOHN DAMASCENE, PRIEST, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 2:1-5; Matthew 8:5-11 (175). "Many will come from the east and the west, and will recline with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob at the banquet in the Kingdom of heaven."

Be a light in the darkness

As Advent days grow ever darker, Isaiah offers hope: "The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light" (Isa. 9:1). We Christians seek the Son's light, but we also take the Savior at his word when he describes us as the "light of the world" (Matt. 5:14). 'Tis the season, to celebrate those who shared their light, such as Rosa Parks, who co-led the Montgomery bus boycott beginning this day in 1955. Or Mary McLeod Bethune, who formed the National Council of Negro Women 20 years earlier. To quote Saint Isidore of Seville (who opened the Fourth Council of Toledo on this day in 633): "Just as we must love God in contemplation, so we must love our neighbor with action."

ADVENT WEEKDAY

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 11:1-10; Luke 10:21-24 (176). "He shall judge the poor with justice, and decide aright for the land's afflicted. He shall strike the ruthless with the rod of his mouth."

Peace on Earth requires living on the edge

This year we celebrate the centennial of the birth of Phil Berrigan, the famed peace activist and one-time Josephite priest. His dedication to serve the African-American community quickly blossomed into an all-out crusade for justice, resulting in his many arrests, sentences, and continuing activities to emphasize the Catholic opposition to bloodshed. He was hardly rewarded for his efforts in this life, and in this time of war in our day, we owe him a great debt. We can pay it by walking as he walked, in the path toward peace.

ADVENT WEEKDAY

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 25:6-10a; Matthew 15:29-37 (177). "On this mountain he will destroy the veil that veils all peoples, The web that is woven over all nations; he will destroy death forever."

Thursday, Dec 07, 2023

Unite to fight for good

Today is Pearl Harbor Day, when the 1941 attack on Pearl Harbor officially thrust the United States into World War II. Americans sacrificed in multiple ways to serve the war effort, from military service to rationing. What if we were to unite in the same way to fight poverty? An emphasis on charity and justice for the poor exists within all the Abrahamic traditions, Christianity, Judaism, and Islam. Who is fighting poverty in your community? Take a step today to unite with them.

ADVENT WEEKDAY

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 26:1-6; Matthew 7:21, 24-27 (178). "Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the Kingdom of heaven."

Friday, Dec 08, 2023

A day of grace

Today is all about grace. It was God's grace that provided Mary with the privilege of being born without original sin; it was Mary's grace that said yes to God's plan; and it is our grace to honor Mary's witness and protection. As Pope John Paul II explains, "Grace means love and the gift of God himself, the completely free gift in which God entrusts to [us] his Mystery." In honor of this day, pray the mysteries of the Rosary.

SOLEMNITY OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY (PATRONAL FEAST DAY OF THE U.S.A.)

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 3:9-15, 20; Ephesians 1:3-6, 11-12; Luke 1:26-38 (689). "Hail, full of grace! The Lord is with you."

Saturday, Dec 09, 2023

Mary mirrors her people

Can you imagine what today's saint, Juan Diego, was going through when he encountered Our Lady of Guadalupe? First of all, she looked nothing like the pictures of the Blessed Virgin he was used to. She wasn't a blue-eyed, white European. She was brown-skinned with dark hair and dark eyes. She wasn't wearing a blue veil either. And she didn't even speak to him in Spanish, but in Nahuatl, the ancient language of his ancestral Aztec. Was she for real? When the image of the Virgin appeared on his cloak, he knew she was. Celebrate Our Lady of Guadalupe, who acts as a reflection for all the faithful.

MEMORIAL OF JUAN DIEGO CUAUHTLATOATZIN, VISIONARY

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 30:19-21, 23-26; Matthew 9:35—10:1, 5a, 6-8 (180). "As you go, make this proclamation: 'The Kingdom of heaven is at hand.'"
