READINGS FOR NEXT WEEKEND

Deuteronomy 18:15-20

:1 Corinthians 7:32-35

Mark 1:21-28

Lent begins on Ash Wednesday, February 14
Easter is March 31.

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

: Dear All, Christ's Peace!

The (Fireside) Psalms Are Returning? – Remember the pandemic? Remember Fireside Psalms (FP)? We might launch a five-week, Lenten version of FP. It would be the same fun format with lots of opportunity to “dial in” via messaging. We would focus on the very fine book 101 Questions and Answers on the Mass. You would read several assigned pages, and then we discuss – probably on Wednesday nights at 8:00 pm – probably with me and a second person (different person each week). Because the program requires commitments of time and tech, it would be good to know if there would be much interest. Please let me know.

Lenten Penance Service – Easter is way early this year. Mark your calendar for Tuesday, February 27.
Ministry Recruiting – Lent will be here before you know it (Valentine's Day) and when it arrives, we will reboot ministry recruiting. If your ministry needs people, please email Suzanne at skral@sjmillstone.com.

The Great Christmas Put-away – Several dozen parishioners turned last Thursday into an exceptional day. About 70 people turned out to put away all the Christmas trees and decorations. Their generosity is pretty impressive. Not only did they work like pack horses, they, with great respect and kindness, undecorated several trees and carefully put the ornaments in bags that are now on the benches in the Memorial Hallway. And as I type this, another (anonymous) parishioner is feeding all the old trees into the chipper. You are one impressive group. And blessings to all who wanted to help but couldn't schedule it. You get the blessings!

Homebound Parishioners – Thank you for letting us know about those who could use a little extra TLC from the parish. On Friday, January 26 we will deliver meals from our Parish Pasta Dinner. Reach out to AnnaMaria if you know of a homebound parishioner who is not on our list and might enjoy a meal prepared by our Knights of Columbus. Email her at arealbuto@sjmillstone.com or call 908-864-0334. Thanks for helping us love our homebound parishioners.

With continued thanks – especially for all who helped so generously with the Christmas cleanup – and with extra blessings for you and your families in 2024!

Father Hank

ARE YOU BEING CALLED TO THE DIACONATE?

The Diocese is looking for Spanish-speaking or bilingual men who are interested in becoming Deacons. A new diaconate formation class is about to begin. Applications for that class will be accepted this Spring; prior to applying, interested men must attend an Information Meeting. Information Meetings will be held at the St. John Neumann Pastoral Center in Piscataway on Wednesday, January 31, 2024 at 7:00 PM and again on Saturday, February 3, 2024 at 10:00 AM. If you are between the ages of 35 and 60, and you believe you are being called to this ministry, you, your wife and your pastor are cordially invited to attend one of these meetings. If you have any questions, or wish to advise that you will attend, please contact the Diocesan Diaconate Office at (732) 562-2457 or diaconate@diometuchen.org.

Thoughts From God's Garden

Sr. Gabriela of the Incarnation, O.C.D.

So What's New?

It's a new year. We have a whole new calendar, and we make mistakes with the date all the time, as we try to realize that we are now in 2024. But what else is new? Do we have a new situation in life? Some of us do, but probably most of us don't. Do we have new friends and relations? Maybe, or maybe not. Has much, if anything, actually changed since we moved forward from last year?

There is a proverb that I like: you never wade in the same river twice. I may enter the river at the same place on the same day, but already the water has flowed on from when I last entered it. The place of the river is the same, the water is different. The situation of my life may be the same, but I have changed. My work may be the same, the people I meet may be the same persons that I already know, but whether they realize it or not, they have changed during the past year and so have I.
None of us can stand still in life.

Jesus said, "I make all things new." He changes everything because He changes us from within. What is outside me may be the same, but I am made different by Him, and that makes for a new world for me and for those around me.

The Christmas Flower Offering List will continue next week. Thank you for your patience.

WORD OF THE WEEK

Metanoia \me-tə-'noi-ə \

Greek word in the New Testament translated as "change of mind" or "change of heart." It corresponds with the Old Testament word for repentance and the Latin conversio, turning or returning, from which derives the idea of conversion. Turning is key, assuming we have lost our way or gone off course.

Pronunciation: <http://tinyurl.com/Take5-metanoia>

CONTEXT

Community takes transformation. Being people of communion requires metanoia that results from encounter and dialogue.

—Sister Nicole Trahan, F.M.I.

Far from being a demand to feel lousy about our screw-ups, metanoia invites us to radically transform the way we perceive others, ourselves, and the world.

—David Anderson

Metanoia invites us to meet all situations, however unfair, with understanding and an empathetic heart.

—Father Ronald Rolheiser, O.M.I.

WHY IT MATTERS

The willingness to change is a crucial ingredient in a life of integrity. On the journey through the years, we will all be confused or misdirected and swerve off the path of truth. Metanoia is the much-needed spiritual course correction. Consider metanoia the vital summons to recalculate where we're headed and what needs to change for us to get there.

From the Catechism of the Catholic Church: Jesus' call to conversion and repentance, does not aim first at outward works, but at the conversion of the heart, interior conversion. [H]owever, interior conversion urges expression in visible signs, gestures, and works of penance (1430).

RELATED WORDS

Conversion | Penance | Contrition | Transformation

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

What does it mean to repent?

Repentance doesn't necessarily require falling on our knees and beating our breasts, though sometimes that may be the appropriate response—as it was for skeptical Thomas, when the resurrected Lord whom he'd doubted stood before him. Basically, to repent means to change course. That can mean movement if we've been standing still, or stopping if we've been in frantic motion. It can mean changing our minds or our hearts, our direction or our behavior.

The word has several important root meanings. The earliest is the Hebrew word t'shuvah: return. It's a crucial concept to prophets like Amos, Hosea, and Jeremiah. Their fellow citizens have wandered far from God's ways, and it's time for them to return home. Metanoia is the New Testament Greek term that carries a similar meaning. John the Baptist first issues the call to change direction, signaled by Baptism. Jesus uses this term when he invites his listeners to change their dispositions—to turn their hearts and lives around—in response to his teaching. Repentance carries the additional meaning of expressing regret for past actions and attitudes—along with the expectation that real change is forthcoming. In addition, the word conversion means turning around, implying a reorientation of intentions and actions. In the sacrament of Reconciliation, we include the stipulation of "making reparation" for what we've done or failed to do that has caused harm.

—Alice Camille, from Questions Catholics Ask <https://tinyurl.com/QCA-repent>

REFLECTION OF THE WEEK

FEAST OF THE CONVERSION OF SAINT PAUL THE APOSTLE (JANUARY 25)

Take the next turn toward truth

The amazing thing about Saint Paul's conversion was that he went from persecutor of Christians to a devout Christian himself. The change in him was so incredible not everyone believed it at first. His turnaround was a complete about-face toward Jesus.

READINGS: Acts 22:3-16 or 9:1-22; Mark 16:15-18 (519 <http://www.usccb.org/bible/readings/012518.cfm>). "Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?"

FAITH IN ACTION

With God's help, you can bring about conversion in your own life. Start with a simple act of forgiveness.
