This Week in Prayer, Service & Community

Dear All, Christ's Peace!

Group Anointing – I was off-campus last Wednesday morning and needed to reschedule the anointing, previously set for March 6 following the Communion Service. The new date will be Wednesday, March 13, after the 10:00 am service. Thank you for your understanding.

Tuesday's Parish Penance Service – Penance services always provide unexpected blessings. One of the great blessings of last week's service was the number of people who mentioned – outside of confession, of course – that this was their first time back in 5 or 10 or 40 years. God bless all who had to muster a little courage. God bless all who are in the process of doing so. We can always arrange a time for you.

The Sneaker/Walking Shoe Collection for Gigi's Playhouse – The collection has begun! Please bring your lightly used sneakers and walking shoes (adult sizes) to the bins in the Gathering Space. The bins will be available from this weekend through Palm Sunday. Thanks in advance for helping.

CCD – We are quickly getting close to the end of the year and our kids are doing great. Our 7th graders were at the parish penance service and described the event as liberating. The other grades are all progressing nicely, with our 8th graders getting prepared for Confirmation on March 22nd.

Parish Cleanup Day – Mark your calendars and recruit your family members for Parish Cleanup Day on Saturday, April 20. There is work for everyone. Details to follow.

Adult Children with Divorced Parents – San Alfonso retreat house in Long Branch is providing a weekend retreat for adults with divorced parents. The retreat runs from Friday, August 23 through Sunday, August 25. The cost is $300 and – if money is tight and you are a parishioner who could benefit from this retreat – your parish can help you with the cost. Questions? Email Cristina at cdaverso@diometuchen.org.

With extra blessings for your experience of Lent,

Father Hank

EASTER MEMORIAL FLOWER PROGRAM

Would you like to make a donation towards our Easter Memorial Flower Program in remembrance of a deceased loved one or to honor someone? Your contributions will provide for next year's flowers – just like last year's contributions provide for this year's. The flower envelopes are now in the Gathering Space. You may drop them in the baskets on the way out of church..
Thank you.

ATTENTION:

High School Senior Catholic Girls:

Did you know?

*Induction ceremonies are not a secret anymore. In fact, these can be hosted in public settings, inviting family and community members. New members can also take part in an online induction.

*The white-feathered hats, red capes and ceremonial swords are history. Starting in 2019, the leader dress code was modernized to include blue blazers, white shirts, berets and sashes.

*The days are gone when Knights would mainly socialize in their own halls with other Knights. Now we're very family-oriented. We are more visible and active in the parish and the surrounding communities.

The principles of the Knights and our mission have not changed. We're looking for men to help us continue our evolving and important journey into the future.

BISHOP'S ANNUAL APPEAL STAY WITH US, LORD:

Renew our Hearts and Send Us on Mission

Central to our understanding of Christian stewardship is the concept of accountability. To safeguard the gifts you have entrusted to our care, we recently set up a special foundation, a separate trust, where all the money from this Appeal goes so that it can be used only for those ministries advertised in the Appeal materials and website. You can be assured that your gift is well protected and well used; making a difference in meeting the spiritual, educational and social needs of the people we serve. A gift to the Bishop's Annual Appeal is a worthy investment.

"This Week"

Are you receiving "This Week," the e-letter that Father Hank sends out every Friday? It is the best way to stay current on timely parish news, especially when it comes to late-breaking announcements or big news for the upcoming weekend. Simply sign up on our parish webpage and it will appear in your email each Friday. Go to www.sjmillstone.com to sign up.

Thoughts From God's Garden

Sr. Gabriela of the Incarnation, O.C.D.

The Open Dead End

One of the worst aspects of a nightmare is the sense that I am powerless. Something is chasing me, and I can't outrun it. I desperately need to find an object, but I can't remember what it is. I drive into a dead end, and it closes up behind me and I am trapped! There is no way for me to get out!

We can feel trapped in this way when we think of death. It is like a dead end with a concrete wall in front of me and no way to back out. I can't avoid it. There is nowhere to go.

Jesus must have had this feeling of powerlessness. He was nailed to the cross and couldn't move. He felt abandoned by his Father. Yet with all the fears of death upon him, he accepted to die. By accepting it, he walked through death and turned it inside out. He walked through the concrete wall at the dead end, and it melted away before him and became the gate to heaven for every one of us.

WORD OF THE WEEK

Joy \ˈjɔɪ\

A fruit or mark of the activity of the Holy Spirit in the life of the faithful. While pleasure comes through the senses and happiness from human interaction, Christian joy is experienced in loving God and neighbor.

Pronunciation: <https://tinyurl.com/Take5-joy>

CONTEXT

Joy is a net of love by which we catch souls.
—Saint Teresa of Calcutta

Joy, with peace, is the sister of charity. Serve the Lord with laughter.
—Saint Pio of Pietrelcina

The gospel is a proclamation of joy. Ideologies don't make people smile, but the gospel is a smile. It makes you smile because it touches your soul with the Good News.
—Pope Francis

WHY IT MATTERS

Venerable Fulton J. Sheen once divided the world into those who have found God and those who are still hungering, thirsting, and seeking. Religious practices in themselves may or may not bring a person to genuine holiness. But the life that exhibits true joy proves to be radiant with the life of God.

From Gaudium et spes, the Pastoral Constitution on the Church in the Modern World: "The Lord is the goal of human history, the focal point of the longings of history and of civilization, the center of the human race, the joy of every heart and the answer to all its yearnings."

RELATED WORDS

Rejoice | Alleluia | Fruits of the Spirit

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Will my faith make me happy?

The biblical idea of happiness is linked to beatitude (Latin for "bliss"). Jesus offers beatitudes in his Sermon on the Mount in Matthew's gospel. Often the primary word of each beatitude is translated as blessed. A more literal rendering might be the cry, "Happy you!" who are just, pure of heart, merciful, a peacemaker, and so on. God is the source of happiness, therefore doing as God does brings bliss.

So, the short answer to the question is, yes, living according to God's will makes you happy. It's the only thing, in fact, that does; or as Saint Thomas Aquinas declared, "God alone satisfies." Saint Paul lists joy as one of nine fruits of the Holy Spirit. Saint Francis de Sales went so far as to warn against giving in to excessive sadness as it's a counter-witness to the joy that comes in the life of faith.

—Alice Camille, from Questions Catholics Ask <http://tinyurl.com/QCA-happy>

REFLECTION OF THE WEEK

FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT, LAETARE SUNDAY (MARCH 10)

Rejoice and be glad

Most of us aren't crazy about being told to "cheer up." Yet today is called Laetare ("rejoice") Sunday because even though it's Lent, the church urges us to cheer up in the words of Isaiah 66:10: "Rejoice with Jerusalem all you who love her." We may feel affection for the memory of biblical Jerusalem or concern for the current sorrows of the city. But it's the heavenly city, where justice and peace reign, that gives us reason to rejoice.

READINGS: 2 Chronicles 36:14-16, 19-23; Ephesians 2:4-10; John 3:14-21 (32 <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings/031024-YearB.cfm>). "Whoever lives the truth comes to the light."

FAITH IN ACTION

Remember our joy and hope lies in the land where Christ rules.
