FALL FOR JESUS!

September 27, 2020

This Moment in Prayer, Service and Community

Dear All:

One of our most imaginative and talkative senior citizens referred this week to her “Communion Strategy.” The concept jarred me slightly and then warmed me. “Strategy” and “Eucharist” rarely appear in the same thought. But the thought merits consideration. These pandemic days require us to become more deliberate about receiving Communion. Our public health situation invites us to plan, to strategize, to think through how we might maintain our Eucharistic relation with Jesus, and then stick to it. If each of us is moving toward weekly reception of Communion, we need to consider the options. Do you prefer standard precautions or extra precautions? Do you want to be at a Mass at which everyone is registered, and therefore traceable, or not? Also, what fits your schedule?

In considering the options, recall that “standard precautions” means masks, social distancing, and communion while exiting. Masses with “standard precautions” do not involve assigned seats and do not require reservations but they do require sign in. “Extra precautions” means standard precautions plus temperature-taking, reservations, and sitting where the usher indicates you should sit.

PARKING LOT COMMUNION SERVICES –

These occur every Wednesday morning at 10 am. We also have a service on Tuesday evening. The Tuesday service will be at 6:30 pm this week (as it has been throughout August and September) but will switch to 5:30 in October. We will then replace the Tuesday evening service, most likely, with a Saturday morning service at either 9 or 10. Let me know if you have a preference. Meanwhile, recall that these services provide just about zero chance of virus exposure.

SUNDAY MASSES – We currently enjoy two opportunities to receive Communion at Sunday Mass – at the 9:30 in church (with extra precautions) and at the 11:30 Mass under the tent (with standard precautions – see below for information regarding this week’s 11:30). We will soon have congregations at the 4:45 Mass. That Mass will entail standard precautions.

WEEKDAY MASSES – As of this Thursday, October 1, we will have congregations at the daily Masses. The Masses on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday will observe standard precautions. The Wednesday Mass will practice extra precautions. The church will be fogged directly before the Wednesday Mass.

This Moment in Prayer

11:30 SUNDAY MASS – LAST WEEK— It was a great blessing, at Sunday’s 11:30 Mass under the tent, to see several folks who were making their Second First Communions. What a grace it was to share that beautiful moment in that beautiful setting. Thanks to all who were patient with the opening day glitches including the FM radio glitch. We think we have them ironed out.

11:30 SUNDAY MASS – THIS WEEK AND BEYOND — Last week, since it was our first time, we started small. Seating was limited to the chairs under the tent for people who had made reservations. This week moves us to the longer-term plan and its three options. First, if you want a weather-proof seat under the tent, make a reservation and we will have a chair for you. Second, if you are willing to take a chance on the weather and sit outside, no need to make a reservation. Just bring your own chair and the ushers will show you where to put it. Third, if you want to stay in your car, in one of the seven spots with direct views of the altar, make a reservation. Communion will be brought to you. REMEMBER – IF YOU WANT TO SIT OUTSIDE, BRING YOUR OWN CHAIR AND THE USHERS WILL SHOW YOU WHERE TO PUT IT.

FIRST COMMUNIONS – God bless the second set of 17 youngsters who made their First Communions last Sunday at the special 12:30 Mass. You were truly beautiful. The masks did not conceal your glow! Great thanks to the parents and teachers who prepared them. Special thanks to the grandparents in the background. Your First Communions are a great day for all of us.

CONFIRMATIONS – God bless the second group of 19 young people who will be confirmed tonight. Again, this is a wonderful day for all of us. Blessings too for the 20 remaining students who will be confirmed next Saturday. It is a very great blessing to welcome you to the world of Confirmed parishioners.

September 27, 2020

BAPTISMS – Once again, thanks to all the parents who have submitted all their paperwork and have now scheduled their child's baptism. Thanks too to the folks who are finishing up the paperwork and are about to schedule the baptisms. As with our First Communions and Confirmations, it is a wonderful day for you individually and a wonderful day for our parish and the Church Universal. Hosanna.

RESPECT LIFE MONTH – October is "Respect Life Month." The "Life Chain" on October 4 kicks it all off. The Life Chain will take place at Mountain and Somerset in Somerville, near Immaculate Conception, from 2:00 to 3:30 on Sunday, October 4.

This Moment in Service

PANDEMIC ECONOMIC HELP FOR PARISHIONERS – The pandemic's economic consequences continue to evolve. Remember – if these days are getting rough for you, let me know. Your fellow parishioners have created an amply funded account to help you make ends meet. No one will know but you and me and two very reliably confidential staff members.

BISHOP'S APPEAL – Despite the pandemic, you are doing a fine job on the Bishop's Appeal. We are currently at 95% of our goal. If you haven't already made your offering, and if the pandemic or other circumstances haven't decreased your ability to do so, perhaps you could make your contribution this month. If we contribute another $9,000, we meet our goal. Thanks for doing what you have done and can do.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH — Great gratitude to the many parish organizations that have been reaching out and those that have been making plans to.

MASKS – Get this . . . our mask-makers have provided more than 1,400 masks & nearly 900 ear-savers to 5 area hospitals, 2 social service agencies, 2 school districts, 1 senior housing development, & many parishioners. More than 20 people sewed and crocheted. Special thanks to staff-member Carlene Thomson for coordinating it all.

GREETING CARDS – A wonderful coalition of our Sunshine Ministry and many devoted parishioners have delivered yet another round of beautiful, hand-made cards to people who are isolated in nursing homes. Another round of cards went to the facilities' staff. Special thanks to Lois Jerzewski for orchestrating this beautiful effort.

CONSOLATION MEALS – The food keeps shipping out! Blessings for the staff members and volunteers who have provided comfort food. Our parish has provided meals to area grave-diggers and funeral home managers, to several front line workers, and most recently to the State Police barracks in Bridgewater (since Millstone doesn't have a police department, the state's keeps an eye on us). The responses from all recipients have been heartwarming.

PRAYER HELPS – Parishioners continue to donate religious goods for our next "Artifacts Road Show" – through which we deliver religious goods to needy parishes in U.S. cities and in foreign countries. Two beautiful chalices were recently added to the collection. Also, big cheers for our Knights and Columbiettes who recently provided home-made rosaries to the Hillsborough Police while joining them in a few moments of beautiful prayer.

ADVENT GIVING TREE – This year's Advent Giving Tree will be different and excellent. The plans have been made and the implementation awaits. This year's giving will be all about gift cards – and the distribution plans are extremely impressive. Stay tuned . . . it starts soon.

This Moment in Community

YOUTH GROUP – Forget the Hufflepuffs, Slytherins, Gryffindors, and Ravenclaws. Very two-decades-ago. The new way is under the banners of Ignatius, Therese, Maximilian, and Joan. The organizing principles for this year's Youth Group are pretty astounding. If you have not already joined one of these groups, get to Youth Group NEXT Sunday, October 4 at 6:00. Light food available. More information is available at <http://SJMillstone.com/youth-ministry>. If you feel shy or weird about joining, get over it. Youth Group welcomes you. Period.

YOUNG ADULTS — Too old for Youth Group and need additional seasoning before you can join the Sages? Starting this Sunday at 7:00 PM we will get together under the tent. Half bible study, half fellowship, this is a great way to get to meet some other young Catholics. Email Bob Ferretti at bobb@sjmillstone.com for more information or click here to let me know you are coming! Open to anyone 21 - 35.

Blessings for you and your first days of October – the month that IMHO, has the best collection of saint days. Meanwhile, I look forward to seeing you at church.

PARISH PICNICS

October 10 & 11

Think of it as a combination of the Annual Parish Picnic AND a congregational reunion. It has been six months since you have seen many of your pew-mates, fold-mates and Mass-mates. Plan to come to whichever picnic you prefer – Saturday 10/10 or Sunday 10/11, both days from 1-3 – but keep in mind that our hope is that Saturday will be primarily for folks from the 4:45, 7:15 and 11:30. For the Sunday picnic, the hope is to have as many as possible from the 6:00 and the 9:30. If you can, come on the day your regular Mass group is coming. If that doesn't work, come the other day. The liquid menu promises to be very fun, like the entertainment for the youngsters. MASKS WILL BE WORN AT ALL TIMES'

Starting Monday, you can RSVP for your preferred picnic. The process resembles the 11:30 Mass process. If you want a guaranteed space under the tent, make a reservation. If you are the adventurous type, are willing to take a chance on the weather, and are willing to forsake a spot under the tent if it rains, you do not need to make a reservation – but you do need to bring your own chair, lawn blanket, whatever.

CARE OF GOD'S CREATION BEAUTY CONTEST

At the beginning of the summer we celebrated the fifth anniversary of Pope Francis' encyclical, Laudato Si: On Care of Our Common Home, in which our Holy Father calls us to join with others to address environmental challenges that face our planet and the people who live in it. The encyclical also reminds us that nature is a constant source of wonder and awe. During the Season of Creation which spans 5 weeks starting September 1 (World Day of Prayer for Creation) and ending on October 4 (Feast of St. Francis of Assisi) we are encouraging parishioners and students to take time to experience the awe and wonder all around us with the "Season of Creation Challenge." Parishioners and students are asked to survey their parish and photograph the most beautiful outdoor area and then submit photos with parish/school name and a brief description to: communications@diometuchen.org. The photos will then be displayed on the diocesan website and on social media.
