DAILY ROSARY

Each morning, Monday-Friday, before Mass at 8 AM.in the church, we pray and meditate on the Mysteries of the Most Holy Rosary. We invite you to join us whenever you are able.

Dear All, Christ's Peace!

Welcome back to Ordinary Time. Enjoy it for the next few weeks. Lent starts on February 22.

Visits to the Blessed Sacrament Chapel – Visits to our Blessed Sacrament Chapel can be sources of amazing grace. Remember, if you want to make a visit during the church's regular office hours – i.e., 8:00 am to 4:00 pm – and the front door of the church is locked, just go to the Parish Hall door, ring the buzzer and someone will let you in, so you can visit the chapel. Also, our tabernacle is surrounded by windows. Outside visits can be terrific.

Repurposing Ministry? – Given the success of our three recent drives – the book drive, the coat drive, and the “Artifacts Road Show” (i.e., the holy artifacts drive), what about if we put them on a three-year cycle. Maybe call this “the coat year”, next year “the artifacts year”, and the following year “the books year”? Let me know if you might be interested in helping to organize a regular cycle of repurposing drives. Thanks.

Children's Clothing – The Pregnancy Aid Center regularly needs gently used clothes for children and babies. If you can contribute clothes for the little ones, email Marianne at mgenn.3@gmail.com or Jeanine at Jcavanagh@sjmillstone.com Toiletries Urgently Needed – The Caritas Food Pantry at Christ the Redeemer Church in Manville has let us know that they have an urgent need for shampoo, bar soap and body wash, toilet paper, paper towels, dish soap, and laundry detergent. If you can help, please put your contributions in the bins in the Memorial Hallway. If you come after hours, please put your gifts in the van. Thanks and blessings for all who can help.

The Pancake Breakfast – Thanks to our Knights of Columbus for providing yet another outstanding breakfast event. Thanks too to all the folks who were able to spend a bit of chill time with other parishioners.

Meals Ministry – Folks in Meals Ministry have been very busy preparing meals for parishioners in a rough patch. Maybe you can help, now or in the future? Email Lee at meals@stjosephsparish.com .

Advent and Christmas were excellent. I will surely miss the trees and their lights. But it is good to be, with you, back in Ordinary Time. I send this with gratitude and a prayer for you and your loved ones.

Father Hank

NOVENA FOR LIFE PRAYER

BECOME A MEMBER OF THE MILLSTONE VALLEY COLUMBIETTES
Wednesday January 25, 2023, at 7:00 PM
Hospitality Room

The Columbiettes are an organization of Catholic women. As a charitable, not-for-profit organization we support many different charities and are involved in community activities, as well as working collectively with our Brother Knights of Columbus to promote faith and unity. We also have many social events as well as our religious and charitable works where you will have the opportunity to meet other women who share your interest.

Millstone Valley Columbiettes are active with St. Joseph Parish and continually reach out to the community. We also incorporate ongoing events throughout the year including our Book Club, Crafting with Purpose, Food by the Pound Competition and more!

The Millstone Valley Auxiliary meets the first Wednesday of each month at 7:30PM at the parish.

If you are interested in joining this magnificent group who strives to serve God through Faith, Hope & Charity, please come on Wednesday, January 25 to complete an application, learn more about our history and take our pledge to officially become a Columbiette.

Contact President, Erica Ruffer at thebove528@hotmail.com, Vice President, Linda Chemidlin at (908) 874-6189 or Past President, Ginny Bove at (908) 829-3918 with any questions, concerns or to confirm your plan to attend on January 25.

Coming live to a parish near you!

Some of us were taught that Mass attendance "counted" if we arrived for the gospel and stayed through Communion. Most churchgoers, thankfully, are weaned from this spartan idea to the liturgical celebration. In 2019, Pope Francis designated the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time as "Word of God Sunday." While every Mass includes a healthy serving of Bible readings, annually we're invited to reflect that this is "an experience which occurs 'live' and not through hearsay," as the pope says. "We gather precisely to listen to what God has done and still intends to do for us." Let's not miss a word of it!

THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME / SUNDAY OF THE WORD OF GOD

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 8:23—9:3; 1 Corinthians 1:10-13, 17; Matthew 4:12-23 (67). "The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; upon those who dwelt in the land of gloom a light has shone."

Don't let fear keep you from serving

The disease of leprosy has been curable since the mid-20th century and is actually not highly contagious, as was believed in the past, but the physical effects were devastating enough to cause tremendous fear. Mother Marianne Cope was not afraid, which she stated in 1883 in her letter of acceptance to King Kalākaua of Hawaii, who had already asked for help from—and been turned down by—more than 50 other religious congregations to care for his people who had leprosy. The German-born American sister and six others came to his aid all the way from New York. When you go beyond your fears to answer a call, you may be bridging the greatest distance of all.

DAY OF PRAYER FOR THE LEGAL PROTECTION OF UNBORN CHILDREN; MEMORIAL OF MARIANNE COPE, RELIGIOUS

TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 9:15, 24-28; Mark 3:22-30 (317). "If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand."

Tuesday, Jan 24, 2023

There is strength in gentleness

Francis de Sales is famous for his gentleness. He used it on his stubborn father, convincing him he was meant to become a priest instead of a lawyer. It was a virtue Francis tapped to win hardened Calvinists back to the Catholic faith following the Protestant Reformation, a time of much bitterness. Explaining that a "spoonful of honey gathers more flies than a barrel full of vinegar," Saint Francis practiced what he preached by greeting everyone with simple kindness, speaking good-naturedly about the goodness, truth, and beauty of the Catholic faith. "Be who you are and be that well," he reminds us in Introduction to the Devout Life.

MEMORIAL OF FRANCIS DE SALES, BISHOP, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 10:1-10; Mark 3:31-35 (318). "Behold, I come to do your will, O God."

Wednesday, Jan 25, 2023

I can see clearly now

We've all had the rather unpleasant experience of "being shown the error of our ways," though none perhaps as dramatically as Saul of Tarsus, zealous persecutor of early followers of Christ. On assignment to round up these dissidents, Saul was knocked from his horse by a blinding light and a voice from heaven. Three days of blindness ensued before the scales literally "fell from his eyes" and the newly awakened apostle and great evangelist we know as Saint Paul emerged. Don't wait to be knocked to the ground before considering how your own life may have gone astray. Pray that anything that blinds you may fall away from your vision.

FEAST OF THE CONVERSION OF PAUL THE APOSTLE

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 22:3-16 or Acts 9:1-22; Mark 16:15-18 (519). "Saul, my brother, regain your sight."

Thursday, Jan 26, 2023

Our moment is now

In the '90s, it seemed everyone wanted in on the "dot.com" internet startup craze. Many were excited to be in on the ground floor of something brand new. It's tempting to think that Timothy and Titus (both of whom have letters in the New Testament addressed to them) were like the dot.com entrepreneurs when it came to the new, exciting religion of Christianity. In contrast, today's Christianity can seem weighed down by centuries of precedent and proscriptions. Titus and Timothy dealt with plenty of church trouble in their time, however, from division to drunkenness to false teaching. Their witness reminds us to pray for the strength to rise to the challenges of the moment we've been given, just as they did.

MEMORIAL OF TIMOTHY AND TITUS, BISHOPS

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Timothy 1:1-8 or Titus 1:1-5 (520); Mark 4:21-25 (320). "The measure with which you measure will be measured out to you."

Friday, Jan 27, 2023

Stay the course

Sometimes when the going gets tough, if they are honest, the tough want to curl up under the blankets and never come out! Life is not always an easy road, even when we feel called by God. But we're not alone on the journey. We can look to the saints to see how they've weathered the storms. Today, on the feast of Angela Merici, educator and founder of the Ursuline Sisters, let us take heart in her wisdom. "Strive with all your might to keep yourselves as you have been called by God, and seek out and desire all those means and ways that are necessary to persevere and prosper till the end."

MEMORIAL OF ANGELA MERICI, RELIGIOUS FOUNDER

TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 10:32-39; Mark 4:26-34 (321). "We are not among those who draw back and perish, but among those who have faith and will possess life."

Saturday, Jan 28, 2023

Be resolute

Sometimes your commitment to your faith or choice of a vocation or calling can lead to uncomfortable conflicts with loved ones who have a different idea of who you should be or how you should live your life. Even a saint as illustrious as Saint Thomas had to struggle against opposition. His family was so opposed to his decision to enter the Dominican order that they had him abducted and held captive for a year! Thomas stood firm and they finally relented, and as a result the church gained perhaps its greatest theologian. Stand firm when you need to—who knows what God has in store for you!

MEMORIAL OF THOMAS AQUINAS, PRIEST, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 11:1-2, 8-19; Mark 4:35-41 (322). "He asked them, 'Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?'"

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time
