Mission 2023

Building Houses of Hope in Appalachia

Over the last several years, our Parish has been supporting the Wayne County Work Camp, located in the poverty-stricken Appalachian Mountains of West Virginia. Last summer our first group of Missionaries participated in the Work Camp and the fruits were abundant both tangibly, and spiritually.

Wayne County is a rural area with rugged mountains and deep valleys. The area is typical of much of Appalachia: rich natural resources (primarily timber and coal) and rugged, hilly land traversed by winding roads, sharing the narrow valley floor with creeks which often overflow their banks. With the economic challenges of high unemployment, declining population and low tax revenues, the communities and residents are faced with many problems. Despite these hardships, the people of Appalachia are rich in faith, love, and generosity.

The Wayne County Work Camp provides a service experience for youth and adults who desire a “hands on” opportunity to put their faith into practice by serving those who are in most need. Its mission is to glorify God; to share the love of Christ by addressing the physical, emotional, and spiritual needs of the people; to work together to make homes warm, safe, and dry; and to experience Christian community by living, working, and worshipping together.

Once again, this June a group of our adult parishioners will participate in Mission 2023 by traveling to West Virginia to build and repair homes for those most desperately in need.

A question most frequently asked by those interested in this effort is “Who funds the Work Camp?” Simply stated, it is supported by the generosity of individuals such as you. Each group participating in the Work Camp is expected to contribute a percentage of the cost of building supplies and materials that will be used throughout the course of the week. We realize that while a group of us will make the journey to Appalachia, our actual number of participants is far greater, as it is your contributions that enable us to bring the mission to fruition. You make this a Mission possible through your generous support!

A replica of the first home built by Houses of Hope has been displayed in the Gathering Space several times. If you are interested in contributing to Mission 2023 and the Houses of Hope endeavor, kindly take a “saw tag” from the display. You can choose from several tags specifying suggested donations for a variety of building supplies. Please place the tag, along with your donation in the amount specified, in an envelope and return it to the Parish Office (Monday – Friday, 8:00 a.m. – 4:00p.m.). Please make checks payable to Saint Joseph Church, in memo line “Appalachia”. You may also donate online <https://sjmillstone.com/appalachia-summer-service-2023>

Typically, the homes we repair are shacks, cabins, and trailers, many of which do not have what we would consider basic necessities, such as running water, heat or electricity. To many of our “mountain friends”, these are “luxuries”. In choosing to be a part of this effort you will not only be improving the physical conditions of the people's lives; you will also be sending a message of hope and love of Christ.

For more information regarding Mission 2023 ~ Houses of Hope, please contact Jeanine Cavanagh at jcavanagh@sjmillstone.com.

From hole to whole

Accounts vary. Sometimes Easter dawns with helpful instruction-bearing angels and a palpable earthshaking. In other narratives it's almost a stealthy affair: a yawning open tomb, the shroud deserted, its meaning unclear. So too we experience the Easters of our lives in a variety of ways: fervent or undecided, joyful or indifferent or possibly even sorrowing. The empty tomb is an invitation to faith, an absence that can be filled any number of ways. We pray for each other this day, that what is empty in any of us may be filled with hope and trust.

SOLEMNITY OF THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD (EASTER SUNDAY)

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 10:34a, 37-43; Colossians 3:1-4 or 1 Corinthians 5:6b-8; Victimae Paschali Laudes; John 20:1-9 or Matthew 28:1-10 (42, 41) or, at an afternoon or evening Mass, Luke 24:13-35 (46). "There was a great earthquake; for an angel of the Lord descended from heaven . . . rolled back the stone, and sat upon it."

God brings all things to completion

Who doesn't sometimes get impatient with God's plan for them? Consider that the waiting can not only be useful but also beautiful. "Trust in the slow work of God," wrote Pierre Teilhard de Chardin (who died on this day in 1955). He would know—this French Jesuit priest was forced to leave his teaching post and withdraw controversial statements in 1925 and was further condemned by the church posthumously in 1962. Decades later, leading cardinals started to see his ideas differently—favorably—and so did Popes Benedict XVI and Francis. "It is the law of all progress that it is made by passing through some stages of instability," Chardin wrote—so, like him, accept "feeling yourself in suspense and incomplete."

MONDAY WITHIN THE OCTAVE OF EASTER

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 2:14, 22-33; Matthew 28:8-15 (261). "And behold, Jesus met them on their way and greeted them."

Tuesday, Apr 11, 2023

Wage peace

One of the most significant pillars of Catholic social teaching turns 60 today: Pacem in terris—in English, "Peace on Earth"—the encyclical written by Pope John XXIII to address the menace of nuclear war and the need to uphold international human rights, including racial equality and women's rights. Significantly, it stands as the first encyclical addressed to both Catholics and non-Catholics alike, drawing worldwide admiration for the church's willingness to confront the social and economic costs of the Cold War. "The social progress, order, security, and peace of each country are necessarily connected with the social progress, order, security, and peace of all other countries," he wrote. Let peace begin with you today.

TUESDAY WITHIN THE OCTAVE OF EASTER

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 2:36-41; John 20:11-18 (262). "Mary went and announced to the disciples, 'I have seen the Lord,' and then reported what he had told her."

Leave the battlefield behind

Most people know that the Civil War, which began on this day in 1861, was largely an unjust war fought in defense of slavery in the Southern United States (then, for a time, the Confederate States of America). What many do not know is that the first skirmish of the war, the Battle of Fort Sumter in Charleston, South Carolina, was led in part by a Catholic, Confederate Brigadier General P. G. T. Beauregard, a Creole Catholic born and raised on a plantation in Louisiana. After the failures of the Confederacy in the war, Beauregard returned to civilian life in his home region, advocating for black civil rights (including voting), societal unity, and also became an admirer of Abraham Lincoln. May we model repentance in the face of our sins and work always for the common bonds of humanity.

WEDNESDAY WITHIN THE OCTAVE OF EASTER

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 3:1-10; Luke 24:13-35 (263). "While he was with them at table, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them. With that their eyes were opened."

Thursday, Apr 13, 2023

Accountability matters

When the risen Christ appears to his dumbfounded disciples, he reminds them "that repentance for the forgiveness of sins would be preached in his name." Even the church itself must repent sometimes. The Catholic Native Boarding School Accountability and Healing Project is such an undertaking. Few expect rapid change, but this group of religious, church officials, and laypeople have named a "sin" the church's role in the federal efforts to dismantle Native American culture through boarding schools. That's a start. Learn more on this topic so you can be part of the healing.

THURSDAY WITHIN THE OCTAVE OF EASTER

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 3:11-26; Luke 24:35-48 (264). "Then he said to them, 'Why are you troubled? And why do questions arise in your hearts?'"

Time for breakfast

Comedian Steven Wright may have been on to something when he quipped: "I went to a restaurant that serves 'breakfast at any time,' so I ordered French toast during the Renaissance." For Christians, who wouldn't choose a morning meal prepared by Jesus on the banks of the Sea of Tiberias? In one of the most memorable stories in the Gospel of John, the disciples are treated to just such an amazing repast. The risen Christ's tender care to ensure that the disciples have a good breakfast is both achingly sweet and altogether practical. He knew that to continue his mission, the disciple would need not only the warmth of his love but the strength and focus a hearty breakfast provides. Take care of your physical and spiritual health so that, you too, may be prepared to carry on Christ's loving mission each day.

FRIDAY WITHIN THE OCTAVE OF EASTER

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 4:1-12; John 21:1-14 (265). "Jesus said to them, 'Come, have breakfast.'"

Saturday, Apr 15, 2023

More than mere appearances

It turns out that Jesus appeared in different forms after his Resurrection. In John's gospel Mary of Magdala, arguably one of the Lord's closest friends, thought he was the gardener. In Luke's gospel two disciples invite him to their house for dinner and haven't a clue who he is. In today's gospel from Mark, we read that "he appeared in another form." Makes you wonder whether it might still be going on. Jesus did say that we engage him in the least of others. In what form will the risen Christ appear to you today?

SATURDAY WITHIN THE OCTAVE OF EASTER

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 4:13-21; Mark 16:9-15 (266). "After this he appeared in another form."
