This Weekend, October 22-23

We will pray for missionaries and frontier churches everywhere on earth. We will also have a second collection to help them.

This Week

Dear All, Christ's Peace,

The Hymnals Are Coming – If all goes according to plan, the new “Glory and Praise” hymnals will be in the pews for the First Sunday of Advent. These hymnals provide the music and the readings. Hence, we will end our parish subscriptions to “Today’s Missal” and “Breaking Bread.” The new hymnals provide a good blend of the classics and the newer songs. It will be good to get back to full singing.

What’s in Your House? – Discussion about the hymnals have raised questions about what resource parishioners have at home. My assumption is you have (a) a New American Bible (in addition to any older family bible you have) and (b) access to the daily and weekend readings, either through a subscription to one of the missalettes or via the e-link to the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops’ readings online. How is your household doing on that front?

The Mass Book – The book for arranging Mass intentions for 2023 will open in early November.

The Act of Spiritual Communion – We are still praying the “Act of Spiritual Communion” at the 4:45 and 9:30. Your questions and comments about our practice have been a blessing. Most of the prayer is a great preparation for anyone about to receive communion (e.g., “I believe that you are fully present . . .” and “I love you above all things . . .”). The other parts are a prayerful expression of solidarity with our livestreaming folks who cannot get to communion. Maybe pray the first part and skip the end? Or pray both parts?

Toddler Clothes and Diapers – The Pregnancy Aid and Information Center (PAIC) needs gently used winter clothing for toddlers, sizes three to six. If you ever want to donate clothes to PAIC, they welcome your call at 908-526-8121. Also, St. Joe’s parishioners go every other Wednesday and can convey your goods.

Children’s Liturgy of the Word (CLOW) – Sunday 9:30 Mass. We encourage you to encourage the little ones to enjoy the word in their way!

Helpers– I have bugged a few individuals in recent weeks – and they always respond with great cheer and great results. The next APB will soon seek your help on two projects: (a) helping to clear the new “Shepherd’s Path” in the woods just north of Yorktown Road and (b) helping to set up the Christmas Trees on the Saturday after Thanksgiving.

O Holy Nights! – Mark your calendars for the Sunday nights – November 27, and December 4, 11, and 18.

TECH Your Thing? – Perhaps you can help us keep the livestream streaming? Or maybe you could serve in one of the Tech Ministry’s other efforts? Please email Sarah Desmond at sdesmond@sjmillstone.com.

*With continued gratitude for the blessing of being here,
and with greatest blessings for you,*

Share some good news

The church isn't stationary but missionary. The word Mass shares the same root as mission: to be sent. We enter the sanctuary weekly to prepare for our mission. This World Mission Sunday, Pope Francis shares his "dream of a completely missionary Church." To embrace this vision is to do three things: Bear witness. Do it everywhere. Trust the Spirit. We remember on this day five Adorers of the Blood of Christ from Illinois who embraced the vision and were martyred in Liberia in 1992. One sister wrote: "We need to move to the call of our mission, not to the call of our comfort." Venture out of your comfort zone.

THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY'S READINGS: Sirach 35:12-14, 16-18; 2 Timothy 4:6-8, 16-18; Luke 18:9-14 (150). "The Lord stood by me and gave me strength, so that through me the proclamation might be completed."

The other cheek is forgiveness

Think it's hard to "turn the other cheek"? What if someone stabbed you in the cheek in an attempt to kill you?! While you imagine what you'd do in that situation, consider what Saint Anthony Mary Claret did when it actually happened to him: He got his would-be assassin's death sentence commuted. As the archbishop of Santiago, Cuba in the mid-1800s, Claret had made enemies by advocating for the downtrodden and denouncing racism. He's an example that turning the other cheek is not a passive action, as some might think, because it has two parts: first, not responding in kind, and then, actively giving a second chance to the offender to do the right thing. Such brave love can and has stopped hate in its tracks.

MEMORIAL OF ANTHONY MARY CLARET, BISHOP, FOUNDER

TODAY'S READINGS: Ephesians 4:32—5:8; Luke 13:10-17 (479). "Woman, you are set free of your infirmity."

God blesses the work of human hands

Few Catholics know the significance of French priest Jacques Paul Migne, born this day in 1800. But without Migne's skills as a journalist and prowess as a publisher, precious few would know anything about the early church fathers. Migne launched a publishing company that produced, at moderate prices, hundreds of volumes of church history and theology whose aim was to better educate Catholic clergy. Even today, his writings on the early church fathers are considered the most complete ever written. Migne's inventiveness reminds us that we, too, can glorify God with our daily work.

TODAY'S READINGS: Ephesians 5:21-33; Luke 13:18-21 (480). "To what shall I compare the Kingdom of God? It is like yeast that a woman took and mixed in with three measures of wheat flour until the whole batch of dough was leavened."

Faithful to the end

On this day in 1529, Saint Thomas More became Lord Chancellor of England under King Henry VIII, who soon after began to forcefully agitate for independence from the dictates of the pope. This led to a clash with Thomas—a staunchly orthodox Catholic—who refused to betray his faith and accede to the royal demands. By 1534, he was imprisoned on charges of treason and was executed the next year after Henry declared himself head of an independent Church of England. As Anglicans and Roman Catholics continue to dialogue in view of shared ecumenical goals, let's remember the faithful witness of Thomas More—a friend to all and a Catholic par excellence.

TODAY'S READINGS: Ephesians 6:1-9; Luke 13:22-30 (481). "For behold, some are last who will be first, and some are first who will be last."

Thursday, Oct 27, 2022

Watch your attitude

In today's gospel King Herod Antipas (who beheaded John the Baptist) is depicted as a menacing tyrant, like his father, Herod the Great (who ordered the Slaughter of the Innocents). Such sins can seem far removed from ours. But Pope Francis has noted: "We must not think that we imitate Herod only if we become tyrants. No. In reality, it's an attitude to which we can all succumb, every time we try to dispel our fears with arrogance, even if only verbal or made up of small abuses intended to mortify those close to us." Let's pray for a world free of powerful tyrants—and free of any tyrannical impulses of our own.

TODAY'S READINGS: Ephesians 6:10-20; Luke 13:31-35 (482). "Some Pharisees came to Jesus and said, 'Go away, leave this area because Herod wants to kill you.'"

Friday, Oct 28, 2022

You can lead from behind, too

Of the 12 apostles, Peter is always front and center—rightfully so, for one called "the rock" (the literal meaning of the Greek name Pétros). Others are recognizable from various gospel stories. But then there's the zealots Simon and Jude (a.k.a. Thaddeus or "Son of James"). We know virtually nothing about them. Yet, they are remembered to this day because Jesus chose them to help lead the early church. Jesus knew that different kinds of leaders were needed to proclaim the gospel—the headliners like Peter and the "behind the scenes" people like Simon and Jude. What kind of leader are you called to be?

FEAST OF SIMON AND JUDE, APOSTLES

TODAY'S READINGS: Ephesians 2:19-22; Luke 6:12-16 (666). "You are fellow citizens with the holy ones . . . built upon the foundation of the Apostles and prophets."

The mother of all virtues

Humility is not much in demand these days, when celebrity status and social media popularity seem all the rage. But precisely because humility challenges all that is near and dear to our ego, it is worth wrestling with, especially if we wish to draw closer to God. Saint Augustine said in one of his letters, "The way to Christ is first through humility, second through humility, third through humility." He also said, "It was pride that changed angels into devils; it is humility that makes [humans] as angels." Humility has a transformative quality if we understand it not as groveling but rather as knowing our true measure, of keeping our feet firmly on the ground (the Latin for earth—humus—is the word's root). Perhaps Saint Thomas Aquinas defined it best: "Humility means seeing ourselves as God sees us: knowing every good we have comes from Him as pure gift."

TODAY'S READINGS: Philippians 1:18b-26; Luke 14:1, 7-11 (484). "For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted."
