Behind the Scenes of This Week's Readings Today's Gospel: Mark 10:46-52

When Jesus asks Bartimaeus what he wants him to do, the blind man responds, "Master, I want to see." The title "Master" is used to address Jesus only two times in the New Testament writings. The second time occurs when Mary of Magdala encounters Jesus outside the empty tomb where he had been buried after his crucifixion. Jesus calls her by name, she recognizes him and responds by calling him "Master" (John 20:16). - Dorothy Gearon

Dear All – Christ's Peace!

Great news today – Bishop Checchio just let us know that he will be celebrating the 9:30 Mass here on Sunday, November 21.

IDA DAMAGE AT CHURCH

Yesterday delivered some unwelcome news: rain from Hurricane Ida infiltrated the rooms that hold the air handlers, the giant-sized blowers that push the heated air, the cooled air, and the fresh air into and out of our worship space. Small patches of mold have started to grow on the walls in those rooms. The air-handler rooms are situated beyond the utility rooms behind sections 1 and 7. They are accessible only from outside. We are now reducing to zero the possibility that you will inhale airborne mold. This requires three steps: first, immobilize the mold; second, eliminate and encapsulate it; third, prevent future growth.

First, we immobilized the airborne mold by turning off the air handlers. They will remain off until the mold is eliminated or encapsulated. That work should be completed tomorrow. If not, the air handlers will stay off and there will be no heat or AC. If temperatures drop tonight, please bring a sweater this weekend.

Second, the elimination and encapsulation work are happening right now (i.e., Friday morning) in the air-handler rooms. Workers are scouring and coating hard-to-reach places. In the worship space, they are cleaning all pews and floors to eliminate any mold that might have drifted in. The air coils in the air handlers will be cleaned, and the filters will be replaced with filters that have the highest possible MERV ratings.

Third, we are preventing future growth by removing and replacing all damp insulation and wallboard, even if it shows no evidence of mold growth. That work should occur in the next three weeks.

With the air-handlers off, no mold particles can be pushed from the air-handler rooms into the worship space. When the elimination and encapsulation processes are complete, hopefully by day's end, there will be no exposed mold for the air-handlers to move. When the damp materials are removed, there will be no chance of future growth. We brought in a highly regarded industrial hygienist who signed off on our response. He assures us that our three steps – immobilization, elimination and encapsulation, and prevention – will eliminate potential harm. I will keep you posted about the progress on all fronts.

We are currently evaluating the flood damage to the under-floor channels and obtaining advice about best next steps. Finally, we are installing a third pump in the courtyard garden and seeking advice about a once and for all answer to the drainage problem. We will soon solicit bids for roof replacement.

This Moment in Prayer

Updating Our Parish Necrology – Our parish necrology serves as the foundation of our prayers for our beloved dead. Please update or edit the names by referring to the directions in the October 17 bulletin.

11:30 Mass, "Post-tent." – Starting Sunday, November 21, the 11:30 Mass will be an outside/inside liturgy. Mass will be celebrated at the main altar. As with the 4:45 and the 9:30, indoor participants can choose one of three types of seating area – open seating, standard precautions, enhanced precautions. Participants can also choose to stay in their cars. We are currently determining whether to connect with the in-car folks via radio, Livestream, or both. Communion will be brought to people in their cars.

The 6:00 p.m. Mass – If all goes according to plan, we will reactivate the 6:00 pm Sunday Mass on Sunday, March 6, 2022 – the first Sunday of Lent.

This Moment in Service

Hurricane Ida Update – Your remarkable generosity has funded $68,895.00 of help for parishioners and neighbors. Applications continue to arrive. All the people who have been visited express expansive gratitude for your compassion and prayers..

Our Advent Giving Tree – The giving period has begun for local families and instructions are posted on our website. Beginning in November, directions will be posted for agencies in Appalachia.

This Moment in Community

O Holy Nights, the Dates – Building on last year's great experience and momentum, we are making ready for this year's "O Holy Nights," four wonderful Sunday evenings of pre-Christmas parish community. Please keep the following dates in mind:

Order Your Tree – From now until Monday, November 22 – Order your tree online on our parish website. This year we will set up 70 additional trees on the north side of Yorktown Road.

Install the Trees – Saturday, November 27 – 10 am to 2 pm – all hands-on deck to set up the trees. Grilled cheese, tomato soup, and loads of sugar and great fun will be available all day.

Decorate your Tree – Do it up any time between Saturday at 2 pm and Sunday, November 28 at 6 pm, when we celebrate the Grand Lighting! Of course, you can decorate your tree any time before the trees come down in early January. Just sayin'. (NB – There is a good rumor going around that we will have competitions and prizes for many classes of tree decoration – as well as prizes for the decorations at Tailgate Caroling.)

O Holy Nights – Sunday evenings, November 28, and December 5, 12, and 19.

O Holy Nights, the Help Needed – Next week's "This Week" will list many of the jobs that need doing for O Holy Nights. Pre-notice notice: We need folks to organize and support each night's food, entertainment, safety, and a few other things. Because we can have less Covid protection than last year, there will be just one session for each night. The Live Nativity on December 19 is the only event that will require registration.

A "Veterans Book of Remembrance", located in the Gathering Space at the sign-up table. We encourage you to take a card to add names of Veterans you would like remembered at the Mass. Return the card to the book so that we can include all names.

Liturgical Ministries Reboots – The lectors are now up and running in a more traditional way. Other ministries will soon make a similar move. Next up will be Eucharistic Ministers and Altar Servers.

Disinfectant Spray – As of last weekend, we are no longer spraying the pews before certain Masses.

Homebound Parishioners – Gifts go out next week. Do you know of someone who is not on our list?

With continued thanks and all best blessings,

Father Hank

THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Adopt an attitude of gratitude

Here's an intriguing take on a familiar commission: Thankful people become missionaries. "To be 'in a state of mission' is a reflection of gratitude," Pope Francis declares on this World Mission Sunday. Yet this "state of mission" belongs to the whole church, not just to those brave souls who pack up and go off to foreign lands. Jesus commissions his friends to take the Good News wherever we go. Grateful folks do this cheerfully. How can we keep from singing, when a song's been placed in our hearts? Pray the Rosary's Glorious Mysteries and live the mission of gratitude.

TODAY'S READINGS: Jeremiah 31:7-9; Hebrews 5:1-6; Mark 10:46-52 (149). "Immediately [the blind man] received his sight, and followed Jesus on the way."

Good for what ails you

Research suggests that regular meditation may help reduce blood pressure, digestive problems, anxiety and depression, and insomnia, among other ailments. Prayerful meditation also heals your soul. Catholics have a lot of help at their disposal here—from the Rosary to Lectio Divina. "There are as many and varied methods of meditation as there are spiritual masters. Christians owe it to themselves to develop the desire to meditate regularly," says the catechism. "But a method is only a guide; the important thing is to advance, with the Holy Spirit, along the one way of prayer: Christ Jesus." Take the best medicine of all!

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 8:12-17; Luke 13:10-17 (479). "Woman, you are set free of your infirmity."

Tuesday, Oct 26, 2021

Care for the caregivers, too

In November 2017 European members of the World Medical Association convened at the Vatican for a conversation on ethical issues surrounding palliative care. Nearby, the International Confederation of Catholic Health Care Institutions was meeting to discuss inequalities in health care. Pope Francis addressed them all: "The categorical imperative is to never abandon the sick." No matter the graveness of the medical condition, "we are called to show love and closeness." Recognizing that "visit the sick" is one of the seven corporal works of mercy, how can you show or send care today—perhaps by supporting Catholic chaplains during this Pastoral Care Week?

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 8:18-25; Luke 13:18-21 (480). "Sufferings of this present time are as nothing compared with the glory to be revealed for us."

Wednesday, Oct 27, 2021

Gentle reminder: Pray today

Benedictine monk Father Godfrey Diekmann, O.S.B., a pillar of the liturgical movement of the last century, tells the story of picking watercress one day on his monastery's grounds and landing in a swamp. Try as he might he couldn't extricate himself. He was eventually rescued by his fellow monks. He wrote of the incident: "What now bothers me is that during the entire ordeal of about 25 minutes I didn't have a single pious thought! What does that say of my more than 50 years of monastic life? Do I have to start all over again?" Forgetting to pray happens to the best of us. But it is never too late to start. A simple prayer of blessing, petition, intercession, thanksgiving, or praise will suffice. Better yet, start with Veni, Sancte Spiritus!, "Come, Holy Spirit!"

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 8:26-30; Luke 13:22-30 (481). "The Spirit comes to the aid of our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought."

FEAST OF SIMON AND JUDE, APOSTLES

Strive for decreasing returns

Saints Simon and Jude have countless images and namesakes, yet we know almost nothing about these apostles whose feast day is today. They were among the 12 apostles, and tradition has it they spread the Good News in Persia. We honor their memory anyway, knowing that for the faithful, "He must increase, and I must decrease," as John the Baptist put it. To be remembered after death as a faithful apostle is not a bad legacy for any Christian! Do one small act today that makes you recognizable as a faithful apostle.

TODAY'S READINGS: Ephesians 2:19-22; Luke 6:12-16 (666). "Jesus went up to the mountain to pray, and he spent the night in prayer to God."

Friday, Oct 29, 2021

Tender mercies

Depression, anxiety, profound sadness, or grief—these can sometimes make us feel like we're no good or God has abandoned us. But it is at these times especially when God tenderly draws close to us. Though it may be difficult to lift our hearts in prayer when we are suffering, we can pray this prayer for ourselves and one another (attributed to Saint Augustine): "Watch, O Lord, with those who wake or watch or weep tonight, and give your angels and saints charge over those who sleep. Tend your sick ones, O Lord Christ. Rest your weary ones. Bless your dying ones. Soothe your suffering ones. Pity your afflicted ones. Shield your joyous ones. And all for love's sake." Amen!

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 9:1-5; Luke 14:1-6 (483). "I have great sorrow and constant anguish in my heart."

MEMORIAL OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Room to grow

We've all heard that the "humble will be exalted." Sounds nice, but where can we look for examples, for a role model? Look no further than Mary, Mother of God. Saturday is the traditional day of the week to recall Mary's example of exalted humility. Mary was humble enough to "make room" for God—literally, in her womb. She was willing to trust God with everything—her reputation, her envisioned marriage, her very body. Do you trust enough to make room so that God can be born in you?

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 11:1-2a, 11-12, 25-29; Luke 14:1, 7-11 (484). "For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted."
