This Moment in Service

FLOOD RELIEF –

CATHOLIC CHARITIES COLLECTION – Thank you for responding so generously to the Catholic

October 3, 2021

Charities collection. You donated nearly $4,000. The parish will round up the total gift to Catholic Charities to $6,000. They will put it to very good use.

HITTING PAUSE ON OUR COLLECTIONS – Your total donations to the Poor Box have nearly reached the $80,000 mark. Once again, we are asking for a pause in the donations. As we reassess the longer-term demand for funds, we will let you know how the supply of funds is holding up.

DISTRIBUTION OF FUNDS –

Already Helped – You have already helped two parish families. They needed help urgently and you were there for them. You provided temporary housing, water heaters, furnaces, and clean-up.

About to Help – We have received 26 requests from parish members who have endured significant losses because of the Ida-rains. Jeanine Cavanagh, our new Director of Social Ministries (she started the day the rain started) and her assistants have visited 14 of those homes. They have learned much about the flooding and the heart-breaks. The stories were received with prayerful, loving ears and hearts. The advisory board will review Jeanine's recommendations on Monday night. Only Jeanine and I will know the applicants' names. Assuming all goes well on Monday night, I expect to sign checks on Tuesday.

Upcoming Help – Jeanine has lined up eight more home visits with parishioners who have submitted requests for help. Starting this morning, we are considering requests from (i) members of Christ the Redeemer Parish in Manville and (ii) our nearby neighbors. The advisory board will consider those requests within two weeks.

Future Help – We appreciate that disasters like the flood can inflict unexpected damages long after the rain stopped falling. We will be keeping enough funds in the Disaster Relief Fund to help with those future challenges.

This disaster has once again revealed the stuff of which you are made. It is impressive and apostolic.

GOD BLESS THE LECTORS – Great thanks to the many generous souls who participated in Saturday morning's workshop for new and returning lectors. Your generosity has enabled us to schedule with confidence. There will be more calls for willing folks later this year.

This Moment in Community

JOIN THE "SAINT JOE'S HELPERS GUILD" – Might you be willing to be on the email list I will use a few times every year to recruit last-minute help for holy chores around church or nearby? It is just the opposite of the outlaws that boasted "Dirty Deeds Done Dirt Cheap." This is a bunch of people who provide the "Holy Help Heaven Hopes for." It involves a minimal commitment and an ability to say "no" without guilt! If you might be able to help, please CLICK HERE or visit the "Helpers Guild" patch on the parish web page. Thanks.

Greeting Our Homebound Parishioners – Our new tradition of bringing gifts to homebound parishioners is doing beautifully. Our next collection of gifts will go out the week of All Saints Day. If you know someone who is homebound who should be on our list, please contact AnnaMaria.

CCD – We just completed our first week of in-person classes since March of 2020. It went beautifully. Greatest thanks to the teachers, especially the new ones, the parents who managed all the adjustments so graciously, the CCD Advisory Board who helped figure it all out, and Mr. Jungels and Mrs. Mackiw who oversaw the whole operation. Above all thanks to the students who have been such great sports and thanks to God for keeping our collective trains, CCD and otherwise, on the holy track! It seems a fine, new year is upon us.

Youth Ministry – This Sunday, 6pm under the tent. If you are in high school you don't want to miss it. Come hungry, bring a friend, come ready to have some fun, learn about yourself and about just how much Jesus loves you (hint: it's a lot...a whole lot).

LIFE CHAIN – This year's event is scheduled for Sunday, October 3, from 2-3 pm at Immaculate Conception Church (35 Mountain Ave, Somerville). If you would like to carpool, be at our church parking lot by 1 pm. God bless all the people in this prayer ministry.

With continued thanks and all best blessings.

TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

To live the gospel of life

At the gospel's heart is the summons to live life abundantly. In Jesus, God takes on flesh and shares our growing and loving, as well as our suffering and dying. No aspect of the human journey remains foreign to Jesus. He's befriended and betrayed, experiences fasting and feasting, knows the simplicity of childhood and the complex politicized life of an adult. On Respect Life Sunday, we're asked to consider how every moment of life is intimately known and ultimately precious to God. Pray the Rosary's Joyful Mysteries today in gratitude for how God chooses to dwell with us.

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 2:18-24; Hebrews 2:9-11; Mark 10:2-16 (140). "Let the children come to me . . . for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these."

MEMORIAL OF FRANCIS OF ASSISI

For all creatures great and small

On the Feast of Saint Francis of Assisi, many parishes have a special ceremony called the Blessing of Pets in honor of Francis' special love for animals. Bless a beloved pet today or any day with these words: "Blessed are you, Lord God, maker of all living creatures. You called forth fish in the sea, birds in the air, and animals on the land. You inspired Saint Francis to call all of them his brothers and sisters. We ask you to bless this pet. By the power of your love, enable it to live according to your plan. May we always praise you for all your beauty in creation. Blessed are you, Lord our God, in all your creatures! Amen."

TODAY'S READINGS: Jonah 1:1—2:1-2, 11; Luke 10:25-37 (461). "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your being, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself."

MEMORIAL OF BLESSED FRANCIS XAVIER SEELOS, PRIEST

Open your heart to those left behind

The motto of the Redemptorist religious order made a big impression on young Francis Xavier Seelos: "Preach the gospel to the most abandoned." Because of it, he left his native Germany to serve immigrants in the United States—and soon became a Redemptorist priest. His compassion eventually cost Francis his life; he died of the yellow fever he caught from visiting the sick. "Come without fear or trembling! I promise to receive you with all gentleness," he preached. Who are the abandoned or fearful in your own part of the world? Ask Francis to help you comfort them.

TODAY'S READINGS: Jonah 3:1-10; Luke 10:38-42 (462). "You are anxious and worried about many things."

Wednesday, Oct 06, 2021

MEMORIAL OF BLESSED MARIE-ROSE DUROCHER

Stand with those who hold the fire line

With the increase in wildfires and chronic drought drying out our forests, we need the help of today's saint, Blessed Marie Rose Durocher (1811-49), a Canadian religious foundress. Several of her miracles were reportedly related to wildfires. One such fire, approaching a convent in Spokane, Washington, was said to have changed direction when a picture of Blessed Marie was fastened to a tree. Another facility in Washington was reportedly saved from a wildfire when the owner tossed a picture of Blessed Marie into the flames, turning it back. Ask her intercession in support of everyday miracle workers, the brave and hardworking men and women fighting the wildfires that seem stronger and more widespread by the year.

TODAY'S READINGS: Jonah 4:1-11; Luke 11:1-4 (463). "[Jesus] said to them, 'When you pray, say: Father, hallowed be your name, your Kingdom come.'"

Thursday, Oct 07, 2021

MEMORIAL OF OUR LADY OF THE ROSARY

Count on the Rosary

Today's Memorial of Our Lady of the Rosary has its roots in a story that, while not historically confirmed, is nonetheless instructive. It is said that Saint Dominic was making little headway in persuading a large group of breakaway Christians to return to orthodoxy when Mary appeared to him, encouraging the Rosary as a new form of prayer-building on the already existing "Marian Psalter." To this day, Dominican sisters, brothers, and priests stress the Rosary, and millions find meditation, consolation, and community through it. Why not say a decade of the Rosary right now and tap into its centuries-old strength?

TODAY'S READINGS: Malachi 3:13-20b; Luke 11:5-13 (464). "How much more will the Father in heaven give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him?"

Friday, Oct 08, 2021

God points toward hope

On October 8, 1871, winds swept across the dry Midwestern prairie and helped fan the flames of the Great Chicago Fire and dozens of lesser-known fires, including the Pestigo, Wisconsin Firestorm that ranks as the deadliest wildfire in U.S. history. Local parish priest Father John-Peter Pernin wrote an eyewitness account titled The Finger of God is There! His interpretation of events captures the theological struggle believers face amid tragedy: On the one hand, he sees a judging God striking down a people for their sinfulness; on the other, he sees a merciful God filling people with hope and the promise of new life. May the finger of God point you in a positive direction during your times of troubles.

TODAY'S READINGS: Joel 1:13-15; 2:1-2; Luke 11:15-26 (465). "But if it is by the finger of God that I drive out demons, then the Kingdom of God has come upon you."

Saturday, Oct 09, 2021

MEMORIAL OF DENIS, BISHOP, MARTYR

Keep your head about you!

Saint Denis, a third-century bishop of Paris, is invoked for the relief of migraine headaches, possibly because he is a cephalophore, a Greek term that means "head-carrier." He was martyred by decapitation and was said to have picked up the severed head and trotted off with it under his arm while preaching on repentance. Wild though that sounds, artists depicting the saint over the centuries struggled with the question, "Where do you put the halo? Over his head, or where his head used to be?" Though we smile, a nugget of truth comes through the legend. When we give all we have to God, our life is memorable and our story ends well.

TODAY'S READINGS: Joel 4:12-21; Luke 11:27-28 (466). "[Jesus] replied, 'Rather, blessed are those who hear the word of God and observe it.'"
