Next Healing Prayer
December 11-12

Dear All, Christ's Peace,

Now that it is November, we double down on our prayers for our beloved dead. We also anticipate Thanksgiving, Advent, O Holy Nights, and Christmas. Between now and the Epiphany, we will be in a very holy overdrive as priests, prophets, and monarchs, as people who pray, serve, and build the community.

Holy C.H.O.W! Helpers – Thanks to the 15 folks who participated in our last orientation session. Our next session will be on Thursday, December 1 at 7:00 pm. Email Michelle at mclaffoon@comcast.net if you would like to register for this session.

Sunday's Trunk-or-Treat – It was huge fun, aided by perfect weather, remarkable trunk displays, most excellent costumes, and a terrific vibe. Greatest blessings for all who participated. Next year? YES!

BLUE STORM Basketball – Registration is now open for St. Joseph's Blue Storm Basketball! Boys and girls in grades 1 through 12 are invited to sign up at our website StJoesCYMBasketball.com. Come join the fun!

Linda Mackiw – Linda's involvement in our CCD program spans more than 30 years. She has been an invaluable volunteer and, over two terms of duty adding up to ten years, a highly valued Associate Director of CCD. Linda will be retiring on December 31. We thank Linda profoundly for all the graces she has channeled into our CCD program. We bless her and Myron and their new adventures and we start the process of trying to find just the right person to assume her duties. Email me if you have someone in mind. And please join me in saying a good prayer for Linda and Myron and their next chapter. With all best blessings and looking forward to praying with you for your deceased loved ones throughout November

November 13-23: Pregnancy Aid & Information Center (PAIC) Your generous donations will support PAIC which is a grass roots agency. It is an all-VOLUNTEER organization dedicated to helping women in crisis pregnancies. Through pregnancy testing, medical referrals, housing, and financial help, adoption information, clothing, and equipment they have helped many hundreds of women choose alternatives to abortion.

Collection of Toddler Clothing for Pregnancy Aid and Information Center.

The PAIC is in dire need of gently used winter clothing for toddlers 3 -6 and size six diapers. We encourage you to bring gently used baby and toddler clothing to PAIC throughout the year. They are in Raritan, and you can arrange drop off times by calling 908 526-8121. Our parishioners volunteer there every other Wednesday and do such excellent work

HILLSBOROUGH FOOD BANK

Since the early days of the pandemic, we have been doubling down on our effort to help the Hillsborough Food Bank. What a blessing it is to see so many parishioners putting goods in the van. The foodbank's organizers have indicated they could use more mac'n'cheese, deodorant, applesauce, hair conditioner, fruit (cups or dried), rice (boxed or bagged), dish soap, and dishwasher soap. Thanks!

All Christmas trees will be lit and will include a laminated card on which is inscribed the name of the deceased family member or friend to whom the tree is dedicated (although those buying a tree also have the option of having the name of a service organization inscribed instead).

Families are also encouraged to decorate their tree(s) with whatever ornaments or personal mementos they see fit, giving them a sentimental value and we hope that you will invite your family members to come and view this living memorial to loved ones.

Note: All lights will be supplied by St. Joe's. Other decorations can be anything you want to include - but they should be weather-resistant and secured to the tree as the trees are all outdoors.

Apocalypse soon?

The approaching end of the church year brings a cascade of dreadful-sounding biblical images in many of the scripture readings. Should we be packing our bags for a mad dash to the end-times? As Malachi says, "Lo, the day is coming"—and of course it is. Time forecloses both personally and cosmically. This is why we're regularly reminded to stay "sober and alert," "awake," and "watchful." The threats are real: climate change, global disease, catastrophes, and random violence, not to mention the genetic time bomb that is our bodies. Live each day with purpose. Meet each moment with love.

THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY'S READINGS: Malachi 3:19-20a; 2 Thessalonians 3:7-12; Luke 21:5-19 (159). "There will be powerful earthquakes, famines, and plagues from place to place; and awesome sights and mighty signs."

Call upon his names

We often call people close to us by special names: Sweetheart, Honey, Angel. The names both describe the person and reveal how we feel about them. The same goes for our names for God and Jesus in particular. We call him Christ, Messiah, Son of David, Son of God as well as Prince of Peace, the Good Shepherd, King of Kings, Light of the World, Bread of Life, the Living Word—among many others. Say a Litany of the Holy Name of Jesus today to ponder the meaning of his names. In the end, remember his birth name, Jesus, means, "God saves." The catechism says: "The name 'Jesus' contains all: God and man and the whole economy of creation and salvation." Shakespeare famously asked, "What's in a name?" In our Lord's case, everything!

TODAY'S READINGS: Revelation 1:1-4; 2:1-5; Luke 18:35-43 (497). "Jesus, Son of David, have pity on me!"

With passion, pursue the good

You could say Saint Albert the Great was a real renaissance man, even though he died in 1289, before the Renaissance flourished. As a learned Dominican friar, he was an astute professor of philosophy, mentoring his famous pupil Thomas Aquinas and thus laying the groundwork for scholasticism. But Albert also wrote on other subjects he was passionate about: chemistry, physics, biology, astronomy, and geography—and served as bishop and theologian to the pope. "Knowledge of divine things is imprinted on our minds by union with God, who is Wisdom itself," said Albert. Thank God for the good things you are passionate about, using them wisely to honor our Creator.

MEMORIAL OF ALBERT THE GREAT, DOMINICAN, BISHOP, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

TODAY'S READINGS: Revelation 3:1-6, 14-22; Luke 19:1-10 (498). "Because you are lukewarm, neither hot nor cold, I will spit you out of my mouth."

Demonstrate a mother's love

On this day 160 years ago, one of America's most influential nuns died in her hometown of New Orleans. A Creole, Venerable Henriette DeLille—founder of the Sisters of the Holy Family and their first mother superior—toiled for decades in education and philanthropy on behalf of the region's black community. She founded her convent in 1834 as a place where black women with a religious calling could serve the community, despite racist opposition from many in the church. Following her death, DeLille's reputation for holiness resulted in her cause for canonization being opened in 1997, the first for a U.S.-born African American. May her spirit of indefatigable service inspire us all to grow in sanctity and serve the forgotten in a country where racism continues to damage church and society. Mother Henriette, pray for us!

TODAY'S READINGS: Revelation 4:1-11; Luke 19:11-28 (499). "He called ten of his servants and gave them ten gold coins and told them, 'Engage in trade with these until I return.'"

Carry on the healing tradition

Christianity has always elevated care for the sick as a key virtue. From Jesus' focus on healing to modern medical systems built by religious orders, helping the ill has been central from day one. Today's saint, Queen Elizabeth of Hungary, built two hospitals. After she lost her fortune, she gave hands-on care to the sick, the aged, and the poor. The next time you shoulder extra work for a sick co-worker or make a late-night run for medicine for a family member, think of it as an opportunity to practice your faith.

MEMORIAL OF ELIZABETH OF HUNGARY, QUEEN, THIRD ORDER FRANCISCAN

TODAY'S READINGS: Revelation 5:1-10; Luke 19:41-44 (500). "[Jesus] saw the city and wept over it, saying, 'If this day you only knew what makes for peace.'"

Learn the language

Making Jesus known to others is a gospel imperative. Saint Philippine Duchesne, R.S.C.J. possessed that evangelizing spirit when she left Paris for New Orleans to serve the French-speaking people in U.S. territories. As a member of the Society of the Sacred Heart, her mission was education. She not only taught people to read and write, but she watched as newly baptized adults, particularly members of the Potawatomie tribe, began spreading the gospel in their own language. As you play your own part in making Jesus known, remember to start with the language of love. That is always an attention getter.

MEMORIAL OF ROSE PHILIPPINE DUCHESNE, SACRED HEART MISSIONARY

TODAY'S READINGS: Revelation 10:8-11; Luke 19:45-48 (501). "It is written, My house shall be a house of prayer, but you have made it a den of thieves."

Saturday, Nov 19, 2022

Make men whole

International Men's Day is a little-known commemoration held today that needs more notice. Wounded (some would say toxic) masculinity—a distorted and often violence-oriented view of "what it means to be a man"—is manifest in so many ills in our society, starting with what Father Richard Rohr calls the "father wound." Rohr tells a story from when he was a prison chaplain: He found great demand among the imprisoned men for Mother's Day cards to send. When he offered them cards to send on Father's Day, however, he had no takers. Real men can be strong without violence, kind without coercion. Help the men in your life (men, this starts with you!) to heal their wounded masculinity.

TODAY'S READINGS: Revelation 11:4-12; Luke 20:27-40 (502). "Teacher, you have answered well."
