READINGS FOR NEXT WEEK

Jeremiah 33:14-16
1 Thessalonians 3:12-4:2
Luke 21:25-28, 34-36

Behind the Scenes of This Week's Readings Today's Gospel: John 18:33b-37

In 1925 Pope Pius XI designated that the last Sunday of the Liturgical Year (church calendar) is to be celebrated as "Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe." More commonly referred to as the Feast of Christ the King, this feast is a fitting closure to a year that began with readings that spoke of waiting for a Messiah and followed with the birth of Jesus, his life, teaching, passion, death, resurrection and ascension into heaven where we believe he reigns over the entire universe. The Feast of Christ the King is also celebrated by many Protestant churches including Anglicans and Lutherans. - Dorothy Gearon

This Week in Prayer, Service and Community

Dear All, Christ's Peace!

This Moment in Prayer

The Book of Mass Intentions – To arrange Mass intentions for 2022, come to the Parish office, through Friday, December 3, at any of the following times – except for Thanksgiving Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday.

Sundays – 9 to 11 am

Mondays, Wednesdays, Thursdays:-
9 to 11 am, 1 to 3 pm, and 5 to 7 pm

Fridays – 9 to 11 am

Saturdays – 6 to 7 pm (after 4:45 Mass)

Christmas Flower Envelopes – Thanks in advance for helping. Last year, the pandemic got in the way of collecting help for the Christmas flowers. This year, we have some catching up to do. The envelopes will be available from this weekend until New Years on the Moses Table and can be dropped in the collection baskets.

In-car at the 11:30 Mass, the survey showed that 11:30 is the more convenient time for those who, for health reasons, want an in-car option. Hence, starting 11/21, the 11:30 Mass will be indoors AND will be broadcast on the parish radio station (88.7 FM). Communion will be shared with in-car people, who will be parking in rows 14-19.

This Moment in Service

Advent Giving Tree – Part 1: Local Giving. Thanks and blessings for all who have responded so graciously.

Advent Giving Tree – Part 2: Children in Appalachia. Gifts due by November 28.

Our Thanksgiving Food Collection – You did a remarkable job of providing for nearby folks who need help to have a Thanksgiving dinner.

This Moment in Community

The Parish Survey – As mentioned, the Parish Council has identified “encouraging people to return to church” as one of its three goals for this year. Good information will enable us to make that happen. It will take you 8-11 minutes to complete the survey that will arrive in your email next week. Please have every confirmed member of your household complete the survey. Thanks. The more we know, the better we can serve.

New Parishioner Welcome and Orientation –

The new parishioner welcome and orientation sessions are a great thing for those who have registered but not yet participated in a New Parishioner Welcome Session. If you missed this week's session, please watch for the dates of our future sessions.

The Bulletin is Back – After a hiatus of many months, hard copies of the bulletin are again available. Take one from the round table in the middle of the Gathering Space.

Irena Gut: Only a Girl – Thanks to Janet Rogers for the oh-so-moving performance, to Phyllis Marganoff for putting us in touch with Janet, and to the 120 parishioners who gathered on Monday. What a blessing.

The Air Test – The industrial hygienists tested the worship space air. We are officially OK.

*With terrific gratitude, great gladness, and sincere blessings, Father Hank

DIOCESE OF METUCHEN

As we joyfully celebrate our 40th Anniversary and launch into this celebratory year, we ask for your continued prayers for our diocese and for the great Mission which has been entrusted to us. May Our Lady of Guadalupe, through whom our diocese was consecrated, continue to intercede for us as we work to build the Kingdom of God here in this beautiful diocese

SOLEMNITY OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

A game of 20 questions

Actually, only 11 questions are exchanged in the fateful interview between Pilate and Jesus. Pilate asks 10, the most famous being, "What is truth?" Equally significant, however, is Pilate's other inquiry, "Are you the King of the Jews?" To which Jesus replies with his own bold interrogation: "Are you saying this on your own or have others told you about me?" It remains a significant inquiry. On this day when the church honors Jesus as King of the Universe, we might ponder the question ourselves: Does Jesus rule our hearts? Or is his authority just something we hear tell about?

TODAY'S READINGS: Daniel 7:13-14; Revelation 1:5-8; John 18:33b-37 (161). "Pilate said to Jesus, 'Are you the King of the Jews?'"

MEMORIAL OF CECILIA, MARTYR

Sing out your life

Saint Cecilia is the patron of music and musicians—because as she was wed against her wishes to a nobleman of no particular faith, she sang in her heart to God. (Her husband ended up becoming Christian and both were martyred by the Romans.) Her patronage of music has created an immense legacy as musical institutions all over the world are named after her, and concerts and festivals are held today on her feast day—all because of a sweet, simple, silent song of fidelity to the Lord. You may not be blessed with musical talent, but God loves to hear your heart-song nonetheless.

TODAY'S READINGS: Daniel 1:1-6, 8-20; Luke 21:1-4 (503). "I tell you truly, this poor widow put in more than all the rest."

Tuesday, Nov 23, 2021

MEMORIAL OF COLUMBAN, ABBOT

Take the gospel everywhere

After years of studying scripture in an Irish monastery, Saint Columban sought permission at age 40 to depart for Europe with a boatload of companions. Their mission: to preach the gospel everywhere they went, proclaiming Christ after barbarian invasions collapsed the Western Roman Empire. Pray some of Columban's eloquent words to begin your day: "Lord, may everything we do this day begin with your blessing and continue with your help. May everything we say this day begin with your love and continue with your grace. May everything we plan this day begin with your inspiration and continue with your peace."

TODAY'S READINGS: Daniel 2:31-45; Luke 21:5-11 (504). "The God of heaven will set up a kingdom that shall never be destroyed."

MEMORIAL OF ANDREW DŨNG-LẠC, PRIEST, AND COMPANIONS, MARTYRS

Make me an instrument of your peace

The Catholic church has a long and complex history in Vietnam, going back to the first European missionaries in the 15th century. Over the centuries, church-state intrigue and foreign colonial interests competed with genuine pastoral work, and Catholic missionaries often were caught in the crossfire. The martyrs remembered today suffered during a particularly difficult period when Catholic families were broken apart and some were branded on the forehead with the Vietnamese words for "false religion." Church-state relations have gradually improved in recent decades as wounds from the past heal. May we all learn the lessons history offers, so that our witness may be a reconciling one.

TODAY'S READINGS: Daniel 5:1-6, 13-14, 16-17, 23-28; Luke 21:12-19 (505). "I myself shall give you a wisdom in speaking that all your adversaries will be powerless to resist or refute."

MEMORIAL OF CATHERINE OF ALEXANDRIA, MARTYR; THANKSGIVING DAY

Attitude of gratitude

Truth will out. As we give thanks this day for blessings in our lives, let's treasure the gift of faith, of truth. Little is known of the life of Catherine of Alexandria, whose memorial is today—perhaps not surprising given she was born quite early in Christian history, around 287. Nonetheless, the legends surrounding this early saint demonstrate her persistence in sharing the truth of her faith in Christ. Roman authorities expended great energy in killing those she converted and finally in killing her, but her truth, the Christian gospel, still shines brightly. Let's give thanks for it.

TODAY'S READINGS: Daniel 6:12-28; Luke 21:20-28 (506). "When these signs begin to happen, stand erect and raise your heads because your redemption is at hand."

NATIONAL BIBLE WEEK

The source of our "inspo"

The Bible has been and continues to be a treasure of inspiration (or "inspo" to the younger set), guiding us through the difficult, ordinary, and joyful moments of everyday life. Instead of tweets, there are verses; instead of hashtags, there are the great biblical themes of creation, love, mercy, and faithfulness. #awesome Even better than tweets and hashtags, however, is the fact that inspo for Christians is not just a feel-good motivation; it is also a real-time experience of God. God inspires—"in-spirits"—us. God breathes God's very spirit with us. What does or could this inspo mean for you today?

TODAY'S READINGS: Daniel 7:2-14; Luke 21:29-33 (507). "Know that the Kingdom of God is near."

Saturday, Nov 27, 2021

MEMORIAL OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Every day a new challenge

Seems lately that every day is D-Day: division, disease, disaster. The news can be overwhelming, and the temptation, which Jesus warned against, is to pull the covers over our heads and sleepwalk through life. Call on the courageous example of Mary, who faced challenges few of us can imagine as she carried out her mission and trusted the Word living within her. We share in that mission to bring God into the world. Trust and stay strong in the storm!

TODAY'S READINGS: Daniel 7:15-27; Luke 21:34-36 (508). "Jesus said to his disciples: 'Beware that your hearts do not become drowsy . . . Be vigilant at all times.'"

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time
