Matthew 3:1-12

Behind the Scenes of This Week's Readings

Today, the First Sunday of Advent, is the beginning of the new Liturgical Calendar. Advent is taken from the Latin word adventus (coming), a translation of the Greek parousia (second coming). Most likely its observance began in the 4th century when the Church began to celebrate Christ's birth. It was a time of penance similar to Lent. It has lasted as long as five weeks and as short as 3 days a week. Most importantly, its early history focused on preparing for the Second Coming of Christ. Not until much later was a remembrance of Christ's birth added to the observance of Advent. Today Advent is four weeks long and celebrates both the remembrance of Christ's birth and the preparation for his Second Coming. To everyone's liking, it is not as penitential as Lent.

First Sunday of Advent

CHRISTMAS MASSES

This is the schedule of the times of Christmas masses as of November 18. More details and any changes will be posted each week. Please continue to check for any changes in this schedule .

Thank You.

Christmas Eve –

4:00 PM – will also be livestreamed
6:00 PM
9:00 PM

Christmas Day –

8:00 AM
9:30 AM – will also be livestreamed

11:30 AM – will also accommodate people in cars and will be broadcast to these people on the parish FM station. Communion will be brought to these people. This option is intended primarily to serve those people whose health prevents them from being in crowds.

MASS INTENTIONS

The book for arranging Mass intentions for 2023 is now open. You will be able to arrange up to five (5) intentions. After the First Sunday of Lent, you can arrange more. You can arrange Masses at several times throughout the following days.

Mondays, Wednesdays & Fridays:

9:00-11:30 AM; 1:00-3:00 PM, and 6:45-9:00 PM

Fridays: 9:00-11:00 AM

Saturdays: After the 4:45 Mass until 6:30 PM

Sundays: 10:30-11:30 AM

These hours will be in effect through Sunday, December 4. Please check for any last-minute changes in the schedule.

Before you come to the office, you can complete one of the "2023 Mass Intention Forms" that are available at the Moses Table.

CHANGES IN THE MASS SCHEDULE

Sunday 6:00 PM Mass

This Sunday, November 20, will be our last 6:00 pm Mass. We have been averaging 40 people and most of the regular parishioners have indicated they can participate at another Mass. The change will eliminate significant pressure on those who schedule the ushers, sacristans, and lectors. The change also enables us to schedule special occasion Masses at that time – e.g., for the Youth Group, the SAGES, Social Ministries, etc. Thanks to all who have supported the 6:00 pm effort.

Saturday at 8:35 AM

Our pre-pandemic schedule included Saturday morning Mass. During the pandemic, we started having confessions, anointings, and “open office hours” at that time. The new system works very well and we will stick to it. People who feel invited to receive Eucharist every day can still receive on Saturday evenings.

Multiple Mass Intentions at Every Mass

By the grace of God, parishioners are becoming even more attentive to the needs of deceased loved ones. Over the last several years, requests for Mass intentions have risen from about 500 to more than 800. The schedule fills by early spring and we must turn people away for the next eight or nine months. We can arrange Mass intentions in the missions, and many people are fine with that. Still, many parishioners want to arrange Masses here. We have increased the number of Mass intentions by offering three intentions for the Masses on 8:35 Tuesday and 9:30 Sunday. We are now adding more. As of January 1, every Mass will allow up to three intentions. With the changes in the Mass schedule (see above), we are expanding the annual number of Mass intentions from roughly 800 a year to 1400 each year. We will try it for 2023 and assess the changes at this time next year. I hope this allows us to accommodate every request for a Mass intention for a loved one.

RESPECT LIFE MASS

Sunday, January 22, 2023,
12:00 Noon

Cathedral of St. Francis Assisi, Metuchen

Please consider joining us for the Annual Diocesan Respect Life Mass. Bishop James F. Checchio will be the celebrant. Youth who have been active in pro-life volunteering will be recognized. There will be a light reception immediately following the Mass. All are welcome to attend. For more information, contact amarshall@di-ometuchen.org or 732-562-1543.

POOR BOX

11/27/2022 Social Concerns Emergency Relief

This week the Poor Box, through your generous donations will support our Parish Social Concerns Emergency Relief services. This provides those in most need of financial support by making a one-time payment of PSEG, rental assistance, security deposit or other basic living expenses. This charity work not only provides for basic need yet restores hope to the least of these.

HILLSBOROUGH FOOD BANK

Thanks for packing the van with much needed items for this outreach. We continue to collect throughout the year, and as of late the foodbank's organizers have indicated they could use more mac'n'cheese, deodorant, applesauce, hair conditioner, fruit (cups or dried), rice (boxed or bagged), dish soap, and dishwasher soap.

PRE-CHRISTMAS APPALACHIA MISSION

This is the trip that delivers and distributes the gifts to two places in Appalachia. It runs from Thursday, December 15 through Sunday, December 18. Can you go? Questions? Email Jeanine at Jcavanagh@sjmillstone.com.

NEXT HEALING PRAYER

The most wonderful time, indeed

"It's the most wonderful time of the year" as some popular lyrics go, and a lot of us agree. Andy Williams made the tune famous, but composers Eddie Pola and George Wyle wrote it. Ironically, Pola and Wyle were Jewish. Yet they assisted Williams in earning the title "Mr. Christmas" with their composition. The song celebrates holiday parties, caroling, mistletoe, good cheer, and loved ones near. But for believers, the season beginning today is really about anticipation and Incarnation, light illuminating the darkness, and God coming near. We know what time it is. Make this Advent a genuine celebration of hope.

FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 2:1-5; Romans 13:11-14; Matthew 24:37-44 (1). "You know the time; it is the hour now for you to awake from sleep."

Monday, Nov 28, 2022

Time to get ready!

With the Thanksgiving holiday weekend wrapped up, Catholics yesterday began the Advent journey to Christmas. The word advent comes from Latin for "to come." All the days from now until the celebration of the birth of Jesus are preparation for his coming. Preparation in this case means remembering to be ready with a spirit of both penance and joy. Did you set out an Advent wreath on your dinner table yesterday? For many, it's the first of many Christmas decorations to come out—with festooned trees not far behind. The wreath is more than just a pretty adornment but also a daily reminder to pray as you count down each week with a new candle. Start the season out right by blessing your wreath with a prayer.

ADVENT WEEKDAY

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 4:2-6; Matthew 8:5-11 (175). "Amen, I say to you, in no one in Israel have I found such faith."

Tuesday, Nov 29, 2022

Listen with the ear of a child

"Advent is not a time to declare, but to listen, to listen to whatever God may want to tell us through the singing of the stars, the quickening of a baby, the gallantry of a dying man," wrote Christian writer Madeleine L'Engle, born this day in 1918. L'Engle is especially known for her children's books, including A Wrinkle in Time, which won the 1963 Newberry Medal. This Advent, consider what it might be like to imitate the Christ Child instead of the adult Jesus. As A Wrinkle in Time tells us: "To love is to be vulnerable; and it is only in vulnerability and risk—not safety and security—that we overcome darkness."

ADVENT WEEKDAY

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 11:1-10; Luke 10:21-24 (176). "Although you have hidden these things from the wise and the learned you have revealed them to the childlike."

Wednesday, Nov 30, 2022

Be first to follow the Lord

It's no coincidence that Saint Andrew the Apostle is linked to Advent (which traditionally begins on the Sunday closest to his feast day). In Eastern Christianity he is known as protokletos, "first called," because it was Andrew, who had been a disciple of John the Baptist, who persuaded his brother Simon (whom we know as Peter) to follow Jesus with his words, "We have found the Messiah!" Andrew also has a devotion linked to Advent, known as the Saint Andrew Novena. Try it out and see if it supports and deepens your living out your own call.

FEAST OF ANDREW, APOSTLE

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 10:9-18; Matthew 4:18-22 (684). "At once they left their nets and followed him."

Thursday, Dec 01, 2022

Build on higher ground

Anyone who has followed the news over the past year has seen more images than ever of people coping with floods. Families waiting on rooftops, people stuffed in boats, neighbors wading through murky water. Jesus constantly used images to make his point, including the image of discipleship as a solid house that stands firm during storms and floods. "Be faithful in small things because it is in them that your strength lies," Saint Teresa of Calcutta once said. Are you building a strong, flood-proof house in the small things you do each day?

ADVENT WEEKDAY

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 26:1-6; Matthew 7:21, 24-27 (178).

"Everyone who listens to these words of mine and acts on them will be like a wise man who built his house on rock."

Friday, Dec 02, 2022

Walk with each other

Today, the church remembers martyrs Jean Donovan, Maura Clarke, Dorothy Kazel, and Ita Ford, brutally murdered for standing with the poor in war-torn El Salvador in 1980. Their witness still speaks profoundly to us today as we encounter our own wars, violence, and suffering, especially among the most vulnerable. And still, we struggle to know what to do. Let us take courage as we ponder the questions posed by Ita Ford in 1977: "Am I willing to suffer with the people here, the suffering of the powerless? Can I say to my neighbors, 'I have no solution to this situation. I don't know the answers, but I will walk with you, search with you, be with you?'"

ADVENT WEEKDAY

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 29:17-24; Matthew 9:27-31 (179). "Let it be done for you according to your faith."

Saturday, Dec 03, 2022

Missionizing begins at home

Many of the practices of the great "missionizing projects" of centuries past are seen as problematic in our age, with its greater sensibility of the rights of indigenous peoples to worship freely as they wish. So, while the legacy of one of the patrons of foreign missions, Saint Francis Xavier, is a mixed one, it is significant to note that he always provided for ongoing pastoral care of the communities he missionized and also advocated for an educated native clergy (rather than foreign-born leadership). None of us acts with perfect justice, but each of us finds ourself living in a unique historical moment, called upon to help church and society live up to the best and most noble qualities of our tradition.

MEMORIAL OF FRANCIS XAVIER, JESUIT PRIEST

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 30:19-21, 23-26; Matthew 9:35—10:1, 5a, 6-8 (180). "At the sight of the crowds, his heart was moved with pity for them because they were troubled and abandoned, like sheep without a shepherd."
