OUR PARISH FAMILY WELCOMES YOU

Visitor or newcomer? Coming home? Welcome to St. Joseph Parish Community. Although we are a diverse group of people, we aim to be a family gathered in love and mutual respect. We are so very different, yet so much alike. We are young and not so young and everything in between. We are lifelong Catholics, brand new Catholics, and some of us are still seeking a spiritual path. We are saints that often struggle. We are sinners who dare to trust in the mercy promised. But no matter how anyone may try to define you, please know that you have a place – a home here with us. Join us as we celebrate God's redemptive love in the Mass. Join us as we create new friendships in our Spirituality, Bible Study and Prayer Groups. Join us in serving the needs of our brothers and sisters here and wherever God calls us. We are so happy that you joined us today and hope that you will come again. We are all eager to greet and welcome you.

WHAT IS HEALING PRAYER?

Throughout our Catholic history, we have cared for the sick using both prayer and medical knowledge. Today we see our hospitals using medical science as well as chaplains, healing prayers, and the Sacrament of the Sick. Both Scientific and Religious types of medical care work together to do God's will.

- Healing Prayer is a prayer of Petition with a member of the prayer team for healing or a special intention. It can be requested by a person, their family, or a friend.
- It is a kind of prayer Christians have been making since New Testament times.
- It expects God will heal, although God may not heal what we expect.
- It is not limited to physical healing, but can heal mind, body, spirit and/or soul.
- It may be repeated.
- It often includes a prayer for help and guidance for family members, friends or medical personnel.
- It does not replace normal medical care.
- It is not a sacrament, but a sacramental (like the rosary or benediction).

You are welcome to request healing prayer at our monthly sessions after mass on the 2nd Sunday of the month.

Next Healing Prayer

Immediately after 4:45PM, 9:30AM & 11:30AM Masses

January 7-8

OPPORTUNITIES TO HELP

The Pregnancy Aid Center

The center, located in Raritan, serves needful women and families. Our parishioners help two Wednesdays each month by sorting, organizing, and packing donations. This is another great option for folks who are just starting their Social Ministry commitment. Questions? Email Marianne at mgenn.3@gmail.com or Jeanine at jcavanagh@sjmillstone.com

Food Pantry

Our parishioners also provide logistical support, once a month, for the food pantry in Perth Amboy. Might this be a good job for you? Email Terry at terrytulee25@gmail.com

SAGES ACTIVITIES

Our programs will take a break for the holiday season and return in January.

COMING IN JANUARY

Thank You Advent Angels!

As we celebrate the "the coming of the Christ child"... GOD WITH US....I take pause to reflect on the many ways I experience GOD WITH US through this season and the many liturgical seasons throughout the year.

In a world full of suffering, poverty, pain, toil, exhaustion, unrest, anger, and violence we are often left waiting... and wondering... what might happen next. Advent in the time of waiting for peace... the Prince of Peace to arrive... the Word made flesh to dwell among us... and we wait, and we pray that He comes to us. We wait, and we pray that He comes to us... and some may doubt, and some may question.

I do not question or doubt. Not because I am faith filled or fearless, however, because of YOU. Each of you, who time and time again show me Emmanuel... OUR GOD IS WITH US. And I know that the "reason for the season" lights up the dark of danger and we begin to see the "star of God's peace" over us all. I see the star as you selflessly serve on bended knee... tending in a myriad of ways... to the needs of the many and the many needs of the world. GOD WITH US is here in you, as you recognize that we are a "called out people" to reflect God's light and love.

In the waiting... sometimes we can see more clearly... love more dearly the "reason for the season" as it is evident all around us ... even in the harshness of daily trials and tribulation. Listen for the sound of Christmas bells... look for the flakes of goodness falling upon our heart, mind, soul, and spirit... even as we walk... or drive through the valley of darkness... Emmanuel... GOD IS WITH US.

Angels we have heard on high... are singing and fluttering all around us... it is a matter of believing. God with us... in us... and through us is the reason for the season. You make this self-evident through your prayers of action... your prayers of love and generosity in abundance.

We receive God's gift of unconditional love and mercy each and every day. Some days we are desperate and recognize incredible blessings! Other days goodness blends into the landscape of our expectant waiting... and becomes hidden in white on white... so much so that we are blinded to the power and presence of the Prince of Peace.

Do you see what I see? I pray that you see what I see clearly... the radiance of GOD WITH US evidenced in your charity... your love on the altar of your life. I thank and praise GOD for this evidence of His love always. It is hope that pulls us from despair. We can despair for others and stay there, a dark and lonely place. Your love received and given freely and generously, restores hope. You are the glad tidings of comfort and joy... you are the joy to the world that our world so desperately needs. Your love of God in action is the Infant Christ being born again and again... and so we celebrate His love so radiantly born in you.

The words of St. Athanasius ring so true, the essence that is you... "He became what we are that he might make us what he is." Clearly, I see Christ in you... Emmanuel... GOD WITH US.

With love and prayers of gratitude,

*Jeanine Cavanagh

Jubilee, every day!

Christmas is the only day of the year designated as "merry." While most birthdays are declared "happy" in the celebration of life, the birth of God among us recommends merriment: a festival of delight, high spirits, good fellowship, and feasting. Yet Saint Théophane Vénard observed that our faith asks even more of us: "Try to fulfill each day's tasks steadily and cheerfully. Be merry, really merry. The life of a true Christian should be a perpetual jubilee, a prelude to the festivals of eternity." Capture the spirit of Christmas in your being. Resolve to bring joy to the world, every day of the year.

SOLEMNITY OF THE NATIVITY OF THE LORD (CHRISTMAS)
TODAY'S READINGS: Night: Isaiah 9:1-6; Titus 2:11-14; Luke 2:1-14 (14); Day: Isaiah 52:7-10; Hebrews 1:1-6; John 1:1-18 (16). "The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light."

A day for renewed commitment

Advent is full of anticipation that finally culminates on Christmas. But once the Savior is here, there's no time to wait to start Christianity's mission. So today we honor the first martyr of the faith, Saint Stephen, who was stoned to death. One of the first followers of the apostles, chosen by them to serve as a deacon, Stephen preached and performed miracles and forgave his attackers (Saul, later Saint Paul, among them) before dying. As we get ready to start a new year, let Stephen inspire you to reflect on your baptismal call to spread the gospel and how you might renew your efforts in word and witness.

FEAST OF STEPHEN, FIRST MARTYR
TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 6:8-10; 7:54-59; Matthew 10:17-22 (696). "You will be hated by all because of my name, but whoever endures to the end will be saved."

Tuesday, Dec 27, 2022

Love remains

What should your true love gift you on the third day of Christmas? How about the reminder that Saint John was the "beloved disciple" of Jesus? So beloved that Jesus—even as he was dying on the cross—entrusted his own mother to John's tender care: "'Woman, here is your son,' and to the disciple, 'Here is your mother'" (John 19:26). As the dust settles on our often hectic celebrations of Christmas, remember that "faith, hope, and love remain . . . but the greatest of these is love." So don't fret if your holiday feast doesn't include a Martha Stewart masterpiece; simple love should be the main course—and makes for the best leftovers.

FEAST OF JOHN, APOSTLE, EVANGELIST
TODAY'S READINGS: 1 John 1:1-4; John 20:1a, 2-8 (697). "Beloved: What was from the beginning, what we have heard, what we have seen . . . and touched with our hands concerns the Word of life."

Wednesday, Dec 28, 2022

Dry every tear

In the midst of celebrating the great octave of Christmas we are reminded that Jesus was born into a world much like our own: filled with violence and terror, impacting especially the most vulnerable. Pope Francis stated in his 2016 address for the Feast of the Holy Innocents: "Christmas is . . . accompanied, whether we like it or not, by tears. . . . It is the sobbing of mothers bewailing the death of their children in the face of Herod's tyranny and unbridled thirst for power. Today too, we hear this heart-rending cry of pain, which we neither desire nor are able to ignore or to silence." How shall we respond, to bring some comfort to those who grieve?

FEAST OF THE HOLY INNOCENTS, MARTYRS
TODAY'S READINGS: 1 John 1:5—2:2; Matthew 2:13-18 (698). "Rise, take the child and his mother, flee to Egypt, and stay there until I tell you."

Thursday, Dec 29, 2022

No disposable lives

"Will no one rid me of this turbulent priest?" Those words are attributed to King Henry II. This provocative question signaled to Henry's armed forces that Bishop Thomas [Becket] of Canterbury should be killed. And so he was. Catholic teaching tells us that every single life is precious, whether a bishop or a pauper. On this memorial of Saint Thomas Becket, consider ways our community can reject the notion of ridding ourselves of turbulent human beings—be they convicts, the bedridden, or other troublesome or inconvenient lives.

MEMORIAL OF THOMAS BECKET, BISHOP, MARTYR
TODAY'S READINGS: 1 John 2:3-11; Luke 2:22-35 (202). "Behold, this child is destined for the fall and rise of many in Israel."

All in the family

Families come in all sorts of shapes and sizes. One thing they all share, however, is that they are not perfect. "Perfect families do not exist," said Pope Francis in a 2015 address. "This must not discourage us. Quite the opposite. Love is something we learn; love is something we live; love grows as it is 'forged' by the concrete situations which each particular family experiences. Love is born and constantly develops amid lights and shadows." As we remember the Holy Family, let us also recommit ourselves to this kind of love within all our family experiences.

FEAST OF THE HOLY FAMILY OF JESUS, MARY, AND JOSEPH
TODAY'S READINGS: Sirach 3:2-6, 12-14 or Colossians 3:12-21; Matthew 2:13-15, 19-23 (17). "And over all these put on love, that is, the bond of perfection."

Saturday, Dec 31, 2022

Slow down to celebrate

Part of the wisdom coming to us from our long church tradition is found in the realization that some mysteries take a while to unfold. That is why during the Christmas season we celebrate the great mystery of God in the world for an entire octave, the eight days between Christmas and the solemnity tomorrow of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Mother of God. As we approach the end of this great celebration, ponder for a few moments how the mystery of this event has unfolded for you this year. And take a moment to feel the joy of Christmas once again.

SEVENTH DAY WITHIN THE OCTAVE OF THE NATIVITY OF THE LORD
TODAY'S READINGS: 1 John 2:18-21; John 1:1-18 (204). "The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it."
