READINGS FOR NEXT WEEK

Acts of the Apostles 5:27-32, 40b-41
Revelation 5:11-14
John 21:1-19

Behind the Scenes of This Week's Readings Today's Gospel – John 20:19-31

In 2000 Pope John Paul II, at the canonization mass of St. Faustina Kowalska, also designated that every year the Sunday immediately after Easter was to be observed as Divine Mercy Sunday. St. Faustina was a Polish nun whose diaries contained descriptions of visions from Christ and his words about the greatness of God's mercy: "My daughter, tell the whole world about My inconceivable mercy."

Every year today's gospel is repeated on the Second Sunday of Easter. This Sunday was specifically chosen because in this Gospel Reading, Christ appears to Thomas 8 days after the resurrection (John 20:26). There are various prayers including a novena associated with this day with a strong emphasis on the sacrament of Reconciliation. – Dorothy Gearon

BISHOP JAMES F. CHECCHIO

Christ is Risen. He is truly Risen!
Easter greetings and blessings to everyone in our beautiful diocese!

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Happy Easter to you and your families! May this Solemnity of Hope help us to remember and believe that God is at work to redeem all things. As we enter into this Easter season, let us truly keep our gaze always on Jesus, who desires to be with us through the ups and downs, through the blessings and challenges we face in our lives, so that we may be people truly on fire with God's love. Know of my love and prayers for you and your families. May we together rejoice that Christ, who once was dead, is now alive and reigns!

With renewed best wishes, I remain

Yours in Christ,

Most Reverend James F. Checchio, JCD, MBA
Bishop of Metuchen

SOLEMNITY OF THE SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER; DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

Mercy seasons justice

Mercy is described as a double blessing in Shakespeare's famous "quality of mercy" speech delivered in The Merchant of Venice.

Mercy blesses the giver as well as the receiver. We're blessed by being merciful since God promises to be generous to us in the same measure we use with others. Withholding compassion punishes both the denier and the denied. Saint Gertrude the Great expresses gratitude to God for how divine mercy "has led me through the many obstacles I have placed in the way of your love." Love better by loving with compassion.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 5:12-16; Revelation 1:9-11a, 12-13, 17-19; John 20:19-31 (45). "Jesus came, although the doors were locked, and stood in their midst and said, 'Peace be with you.'"

Monday, Apr 25, 2022

FEAST OF MARK, EVANGELIST

Hear him roar

Even though the Gospel of Mark comes second in the New Testament, it was the first one written and served as source material for the Gospels of Matthew and Luke. The author of Mark was not one of the 12 apostles but was a friend of Peter, who called him "son," and Paul, with whom he had a bumpy relationship. Mark is depicted in art with the symbol of a winged lion—his gospel may be simple and to the point, but the "roar" of his words certainly took flight! Don't underestimate the power of your own words about the Lord—they too may endure!

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Peter 5:5b-14; Mark 16:15-20 (555). "Go into the whole world and proclaim the Gospel to every creature."

Tuesday, Apr 26, 2022

EASTER WEEKDAY

Martyrs for the poor

On this day in 1998, Guatemalan Bishop Juan Gerardi Conedera was bludgeoned to death for daring to defend the nation's indigenous people. Conedera was not the first Latin American religious leader—nor the last—to be martyred for championing the "least of these" as Jesus did. But the fate of all such martyrs shines a bright light on Catholic Social Teaching as it emerged from pivotal gatherings of Latin American bishops, for instance the Medellín (1968) and Puebla (1979) conferences. Quoting Puebla, how can you make a "preferential option for the poor" today?

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 4:32-37; John 3:7b-15 (268). "So must the Son of Man be lifted up, so that everyone who believes in him may have eternal life."

Wednesday, Apr 27, 2022

EASTER WEEKDAY

The light outshines the darkness

Holocaust Remembrance Day begins at sundown this evening. The Holocaust was one of the darkest moments in human history. It seemed that evil might triumph over good, darkness over light. The Catholic Church of times past sadly watered the deadly seeds of anti-Semitism. Thankfully that has changed in recent decades. Pope John Paul II was instrumental in his visits to synagogues and reinterpreting the New Testament to avoid the anti-Jewish implications that dominated for centuries. Pope Francis has prayed at the Western Wall and Yad Vashem, denouncing anti-Semitism, standing up for Jews when anti-Semitism occurs. Just as Easter Sunday comes after the horror of Good Friday, the light does indeed prevail. We are an Easter people.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 5:17-26; John 3:16-21 (269). "But whoever lives the truth comes to the light, so that his works may be clearly seen as done in God."

MEMORIAL OF PETER CHANEL, PRIEST, MARTYR

The stuff that healers are made of

The martyrdom of Marist priest Father Peter Chanel, S.M. on the South Seas island of Fortuna could be an action movie. There's a disgruntled king. A bloody fight. Peter Chanel, healer, steps in to treat the injured man, his enemy by any definition. Chanel momentarily turns, and the enemy rises up and strikes him dead. Chanel's murderer much later undergoes a conversion himself and becomes Christian, as does most of the island. One of Chanel's catechumens had said of him, "He loves us. He does what he teaches. He forgives his enemies. His teaching is good." Your personal battles may be less cinematic, but in the communion of saints, Chanel is available to inspire right action against the odds.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 5:27-33; John 3:31-36 (270). "Whoever believes in the Son has eternal life."

Friday, Apr 29, 2022

MEMORIAL OF CATHERINE OF SIENA, LAY DOMINICAN, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

Grounded in love

Saint Catherine of Siena, O.P. models for us balance in our life of prayer and social commitment. Early in her life, she stayed at home and focused fervently on prayer. But God had other plans. Catherine had a vision in which Christ reminded her of the call to love God and neighbor. Catherine's spiritual director wrote that God spoke the following to Catherine: "It is the justice of these two commandments that I want you now to fulfill. On two feet you must walk my way; on two wings you must fly to heaven."

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 5:34-42; John 6:1-15 (271). "A large crowd followed him, because they saw the signs he was performing on the sick."

Saturday, Apr 30, 2022

EASTER WEEKDAY

Live free of fear

John Dear is a Catholic priest and longtime peace activist, having been arrested more than 75 times in acts of nonviolent civil disobedience. But it wasn't always that way. When he entered priestly formation, he couldn't imagine himself as an activist. His inspiration was Father Daniel Berrigan, S.J., renowned peace activist, poet, and Jesuit priest who died on this day in 2016. Dear writes: "I first met Dan . . . in the early 1980s . . . I remember asking him how in the world I could ever work for peace. 'What are you afraid of?' he asked me. 'Don't be afraid. Don't live in fear. Live in faith and hope and peace.' I was shocked. No one ever said such things to me. I decided then and there to give it a try. Later, I realized: we all need a teacher who tells us not to be afraid." Whatever your particular calling, don't let fear keep you from being your fullest, Christ-like self.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 6:1-7; John 6:16-21 (272). "They saw Jesus walking on the sea and coming near the boat, and they began to be afraid. But he said to them, 'It is I. Do not be afraid.'"
