READINGS FOR NEXT WEEK

Acts of the Apostles 15:1-2, 22-29
Revelation 21:10-14, 22-23
John 14:23-29

Behind the Scenes of This Week's Readings Today's Gospel – John 13:31-33a, 34-35

The first 12 chapters of John's Gospel, sometimes referred to as the Book of Signs, focus on the life and public ministry of Jesus. The stories contained in these chapters are designed by John to be signs pointing to the true nature of Jesus, his Divinity and Oneness with God the Father. In Chapter 13 and the following chapters of the Gospel, John shifts his focus to the fulfillment of these signs in the glorification of Jesus through his death and resurrection.. These latter chapters are often referred to as the Book of Glory.— Dorothy Gearon

Dear All – Christ's peace

When was the last time someone asked you for advice? Well, we are asking. What brief bit of advice do you want to share with this year's graduates? A favorite quote? A favorite poem? Go to our parish webpage to share it. Your input will be distributed in the "yearbook" that will be distributed at our parish's Graduation Mass – Sunday June 5 at 11:30.

This Week in Prayer

6:00 pm Sunday Mass – will continue through Sunday, May 22. It will resume on Sunday, September 11, the day of the parish Picnic.

11:30 Outdoor Mass – returns to the tent on Sunday, May 29. The arrangements will be as last year--seating under the tent, outside the tent, and in cars.

This Week in Service

Helping the Sisters Help Ukraine's Refugees – Our first transfer of funds to the sisters in Poland has gone through and a second has been made and we still have more to share.

Mother General's Letter to the people supporting their efforts to assist Ukraine's refugees can be found on our webpage, along with some photographs..

Additional Beneficiaries – The sisters have told us about an order of religious brothers who are making a concerted effort to house refugees with disabilities. As soon as I learn more, I will let you know. If we can make it happen, part of your contributions will go to this worthy cause.

May Crib Collection is in the Gathering Space. Please consider donating some of the goods that new moms need most – especially bottles, diapers, baby wipes, toiletries, baby formula, and layettes. Gently used clothing is welcomed for children up to age five.

This Week in Community

Indoor Events – We are expanding the use of the Parish Hall so that events can now accommodate up to 20 tables of up to eight people each. If the current uptick continues, we will revisit.

Financial Peace University is returning in the fall and, Holy Moses, has it helped MANY people. Stay tuned.

With continued thanks and blessings for you during the Easter Season – and an extra "Alleluia"

"WEIRD AMERICA...

WEIRD NEW JERSEY"

Tuesday, May 17, 11:00AM

Parish Hall

Our SAGES' Kick-off Tuesday Topic features

Jeff Kampf, a big proponent of Never Stop Learning. He started Lifelong Cognition in 2017, after having the opportunity to lecture at an independent and assisted living community. He fell in love with the idea of Life Long Learning, and creating programs to engage seniors, and help foster their cognitive health.

His talk is a good old virtual road trip across America and a good excuse to get off the beaten path to get a little taste of weird America. In addition to wide-open prairie, twisting coastal highways, and sun kissed mountain ranges, the United States has its fair share of oddities really, really odd oddities. And as it turns out, New Jersey has its share like the Jersey Devil and many more! Our state is packed with far more oddities than TV could ever invent.

Join us for bagels and coffee at 10:30AM prior to the lecture.

FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Opening a door to the poor

Valuing families is a Catholic imperative. Yet on this International Day of Families, we face the reality that between 20 and 30 percent of the world's homeless include entire families. In the United States, nearly 60,000 families with children are without shelter on a given night. De La Salle Brother Peter Maurin co-founded the Catholic Worker Movement with Dorothy Day because he couldn't, as he said, be crazy the way the world is crazy. "What we give to the poor for Christ's sake, is what we carry with us when we die," Maurin reflected. Today, on his death date, reflect on what you will carry with you at your passing.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 14:21-27; Revelation 21:1-5a; John 13:31-33a, 34-35 (54). "It is necessary for us to undergo many hardships to enter the kingdom of God."

Monday, May 16, 2022

EASTER WEEKDAY

Bear witness

The Holy Spirit is called the "Advocate." An advocate is someone who defends, counsels, guides, and comforts. As Saint Paul said, the Advocate bears witness that we are children of God. As Catholics, we're called to advocate for others as well. Catholic Relief Services encourages "advocating for changes in existing unjust policies and the creation of new policies that benefit the common good." Want to put your faith into action through advocacy for the poor? Visit the website of Catholic Relief Services to learn how to become a voice for those whose voices have been ignored.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 14:5-18; John 14:21-26 (285). "The Advocate, the Holy Spirit whom the Father will send in my name—he will teach you everything."

Tuesday, May 17, 2022

EASTER WEEKDAY

Erase racism

On this day in 1954, the U.S. Supreme Court ruled unanimously against racial segregation in public schools. Four years later, the U.S. Catholic bishops issued their first pastoral letter on racism, Discrimination and Christian Conscience. It wasn't the first time the bishops denounced the scourge of racial injustice—nor the last. "Racism is a sin: a sin that divides the human family, blots out the image of God among specific members of that family, and violates the fundamental human dignity of those called to be children of the same Father" they wrote in 1979. Commemorate Brown vs. the Board of Education by revisiting the pastoral letter Brothers and Sisters to Us.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 14:19-28; John 14:27-31a (286). "My peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give it to you."

Wednesday, May 18, 2022

MEMORIAL OF JOHN I, POPE, MARTYR

Rise to the challenge

Not every pope was first a bishop, much less a cardinal, as is the custom these days. Pope and martyr John I, who we memorialize today, was an archdeacon when called to the papacy in the year 523. An archdeacon acts as an intermediary between a bishop and the clergy of a diocese, often administering a portion of the diocese called an archdiaconate. The office has been described metaphorically as that of oculus episcopi, the "bishop's eye." John I must have excelled in his role to have been called to the papacy at a time of great upheaval. He responded courageously, even with his life. Be ready to be called to some surprising roles in your faith journey. Turn to John I for the inspiration to respond fully.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 15:1-6; John 15:1-8 (287). "I am the vine, you are the branches."

Thursday, May 19, 2022

EASTER WEEKDAY

Disagree agreeably

Today's first reading recalls the first recorded argument in the church—over whether men entering the Christian church needed to be circumcised according to Jewish tradition. During our 2,000 years of wrangling, this maxim arose: "In essentials unity, in non-essentials liberty, and in all things charity." Christians don't even agree on who said that, but it was Pope John XXIII's guiding principal for the important discussions of Vatican II, which modernized the church. Do you bring charity to your disagreements?

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 15:7-21; John 15:9-11 (288). "I have told you this so that my joy might be in you and your joy might be complete."

Friday, May 20, 2022

EASTER WEEKDAY

Engage with epistles, emissaries, and emails

A tweet from the pope. An email newsletter about the Synod. The internet and social media are normal sources of information and conversation these days. This is especially true given our recent experience with social distancing. In the early church, mass communication was done primarily through epistles and emissaries. Epistles were letters written by notable folks, and emissaries were people sent on behalf of a notable person or group. Both were intended to communicate to a large number of people in far-flung areas. Given this Easter season, what message would you choose to broadcast far and wide?

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 15:22-31; John 15:12-17 (289). "So we are sending Judas and Silas who will also convey this same message by word of mouth."

Saturday, May 21, 2022

EASTER WEEKDAY

Pray for one nation under God

Today is Armed Forces Day, a holiday that pays tribute to men and women who serve across all six branches in the United States military. The United States is blessed with well trained and disciplined armed forces, dedicated to defend not only the people but also the principles on which the nation was founded, including the free exercise of religion. Cherish the right that is yours to worship freely, and take a moment today to give thanks for those who are sworn to protect it and all our cherished liberties.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 16:1-10; John 15:18-21 (290). "If they persecuted me, they will also persecute you."

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time
