John 20:19-23

What Happened to Ascension Thursday?

Effective this Easter season, the Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord will be permanently transferred from Thursday of the Sixth Week of Easter to the following Sunday, the Seventh Sunday of Easter, in all Catholic dioceses in New Jersey. This year, the Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord will be observed on Sunday, May 29. This liturgical observance is an integral dimension of the completion of Our Lord's paschal mystery and, after much discussion, the Catholic Bishops of New Jersey collectively discerned that the transferring the observance to the following Sunday would allow for greater participation among the faithful.

Dear All – Christ's peace

This Week in Prayer

May Crowning – Thanks to the first communicants and to all who made Sunday's May Crowning so beautiful. I was very glad to know that most who participated want to make it an annual event.

Spiritual Exercises Tune-Up – Thanks to all who joined in. Great to know the graces are alive and well!

Saturday Confessions, Anointings, Conversations – We have moved back to normal schedule. I will be in the parking lot from 10:30 to 11:30. No appointments needed.

Eucharistic Ministers (EMs) – Blessings for all who signed up to become EMs.

This Week in Service

Helping the Sisters Help Ukraine's Refugees –

Total Donations – Our Ukraine fund amounts to $91,000. You donated $81,000 and another $10k is coming out of the Social Ministries general fund. Again, you have outdone yourself. ("When did I see you as a refugee and come to your assistance?")

This Week in Community

Trivia Night – Thanks to Bob Ferretti and the Youth Group for a rollicking fun evening. It was a professional production, and the table decorations were huge fun. Too bad only one person knew that Burlington County is bigger than Hudson County.

With continued thanks and blessings and another week's worth of alleluias!

Father Hank

The parish offices will be closed on Monday, May 30. Please take a moment during the holiday to say a prayer for the men and women in the military who have served our country in the past and for those who serve today.

MILLSTONE VALLEY COLUMBIETTES

The Columbiettes of our parish are pleased to announce Kelly Irwin as our nominee for the Student Good Citizen Award. Kelly has been active in Girl Scouts, the HHS Theater program, Boro Buddies (as Coordinator and volunteer of this mentoring program for elementary students) and Lend-A-Voice (as co-founder of this acapella group that provides music to nursing homes and the local community). Her name has been presented to the State Council Columbiettes who will select one high school senior Catholic girl in New Jersey who demonstrates leadership and service. Kelly will receive a certificate and monetary gift from the Millstone Valley Columbiettes.

We are also pleased to announce George Meyer as our nominee for the Humanitarian Award. George is truly dedicated to keeping us safe and maintaining the natural beauty of our community. He repairs public paths, picks up trash along the roadway and has filled in pavement cracks and pulled weeds in our church parking lot. He does this on his own without seeking praise or recognition. His name has been presented to the State Council Columbiettes who will select one deserving citizen from New Jersey who helps improve the welfare and happiness of others. George will receive a certificate and monetary gift from the Millstone Valley Columbiettes.

Please pray for their eternal rest and for all who mourn their deaths..

SOCIAL CONCERNS

Janine Cavanagh
jcavanagh@sjmillstone.com

Social Ministry is the heartbeat of a living faith. It provides us with the opportunity to live our faith and radiate the love and light of our Lord Jesus Christ on the altar of our lives. It is what St. Augustine succinctly stated when he said, "We are called to be what we receive" — the tangible love of Christ. Social Ministry in our parish provides you with myriad opportunities to do just this. We invite you to explore some of these ministries listed below. Take some time to read, reflect and pray about where the Lord is calling you to serve and be served

This Week's Poor Box – Donations will support our parish's mission trip to West Virginia, from June 11 to June 18. Our eight adult volunteers will be building one house and repairing several others. Every contribution helps The Appalachia Mission - Wayne County Work Camp ministry provides a service experience for our parishioners who desire a "hands-on" opportunity to put their faith into action by serving those who are in desperate need. The Work Camp's mission is to work to make homes warm, safe, and dry. We also run a Christmas Mission which donates gifts for the children as part of our Advent Giving Tree Ministry and organizes a party for the families of the children receiving the gifts.

Saint Vincent de Paul Food Pantry – The Perth Amboy food pantry needs summer volunteers. The Food Pantry provides food for an average of 186 clients a week. Volunteers manage the pantry every Saturday from 9:30 am to 12:45 pm and our parishioners are a part of this volunteer base. Can you spare one morning each month? If So, email Terry Lee at terrytulee25@gmail.com

The Pregnancy Aid and Information Center: This grass roots agency is an all-volunteer organization dedicated to helping women in crisis pregnancies. Through pregnancy testing, medical referrals, housing, and financial help, as well as adoption information, clothing, and equipment, PAIC has helped many hundreds of women choose alternatives to abortion. Join the parishioners who, every other Wednesday, help the PAIC help expectant moms with physical necessities and many forms of support. Contact Jeanine.

Social Concerns Emergency Relief: This program provides those in most need of financial support by making a one-time payment of PSEG, rental assistance, security deposit or other basic living expenses. This charity work not only provides for basic need, it restores hope to the least of these.

To find out about these or any of our 20+ Social Concerns Ministries, please contact Jeanine.

NAMING OUR FOOD TRUCK

Our parish food truck is almost ready to go. But before we dispatch it, we need to name it. Let your imagination run wild, then submit your suggestion either electronically on our parish website or in hard copy at the Moses Table. The committee will select four semi-finalists and present those names to the parish for a final vote.

Basic rules:

- one submission per person,
- all suggestions must include the suggester's name and contact information,
- the suggestion cannot include the word "Hank,"
- all suggestions are due by 11:59 pm on Tuesday, May 31. After we settle on the name, we will figure out the new paint job and logo! August 1 is our current target date to start work

SEVENTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Hear me out

Pope Francis chose one word for the theme of this year's World Communications Day: "Listen!" Since the pandemic has spared no one, we each carry wounds that need to be acknowledged and healed. Dialogue isn't all about talking, the pope notes. At least half the time we should be listening, a task requiring humility in order to receive the truth of another person's experience. At the same time, the quest for truth involves the discernment of reliable information. We begin with the courage to listen, free of prejudice or agenda.

Only then can we find our way together to the light.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 7:55-60; Revelation 22:12-14, 16-17, 20; John 17:20-26 (61). "That they may all be one, as you, Father, are in me and I in you."

EASTER WEEKDAY

Give thanks for reverse mission

Membership in the Catholic Church in the Western world is declining. It's painful for those who remain to see fewer and fewer people in the pews—or worse, to experience the closing of their parishes. It can seem like the church is on the ropes. But stop to think: There are an estimated 1.2 billion Roman Catholics in the world—more than 40 percent of them in Latin America, and the largest growth is in Africa and Asia. Many U.S. Catholic parishes now have priests from those regions. Consider how the Holy Spirit might be at work, with those the West once missioned to now missioning to us.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 19:1-8; John 16:29-33 (297). "In the world you will have trouble, but take courage, I have conquered the world."

Tuesday, May 31, 2022

FEAST OF THE VISITATION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Moved by the Spirit

The scene of Elizabeth greeting Mary, both carrying miraculous pregnancies, is blessedly familiar to Catholic ears. Our "Hail Mary" prayer comes from this encounter. And we hear that even in utero John the Baptist recognizes Jesus and leaps for joy. But Saint Ambrose makes an observation about this visit that's easy to miss: "Mary sets out for the hill country . . . She goes eager in purpose, dutiful in conscience, hastening for joy. Filled with God, where would she hasten but to the heights? The Holy Spirit does not proceed by slow, laborious efforts." When has the Holy Spirit prompted you to act in joyful haste?

TODAY'S READINGS: Zephaniah 3:14-18a or Romans 12:9-16; Luke 1:39-56 (572). "Most blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb."

MEMORIAL OF JUSTIN, MARTYR

Give thanks to those who gave it all

Today we celebrate the feast of Saint Justin, a figure known for his philosophical prowess, as well as his astute defense of the Christian faith during the second century. His writings are some of the earliest among the church fathers, making his comments on subjects like the sacraments a vital source of information about what the early church believed. He stood out as one arguing for the proto-Christian nature of Greek philosophers such as Socrates and Plato and sought to use their ideas to explain and spread the faith among his non-Christian contemporaries. These included hostile Roman emperors, and Justin was eventually martyred alongside several of his students. Give thanks for the early witnesses who contributed so dearly to the deposit of faith we have inherited.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 20:28-38; John 17:11b-19 (299). "I gave them your word, and the world hated them, because they do not belong to the world."

Thursday, Jun 02, 2022

MEMORIAL OF MARCELLINUS AND PETER, MARTYRS

May we all get to rest in peace

Little is known historically about early Christians Marcellinus and Peter, martyred in 304. It is said they were killed at an out-of-the-way location by hostile Roman authorities so that other Christians would not have a chance to bury and venerate their bodies. Even so, it is said they peacefully and without protest cleared the spot chosen for their death, an overgrown thicket three miles from Rome. The fact they could die with peaceful hearts indicates the strength of their faith and trust. Pray that we too can find that peace when we come to our own time and place of final repose.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 22:30; 23:6-11; John 17:20-26 (300). "[May] the love with which you loved me . . . be in them and I in them."

Friday, Jun 03, 2022

MEMORIAL OF CHARLES LWANGA AND COMPANIONS, MARTYRS

The Spirit is on the move

The astounding growth of the Catholic Church in Africa has not come easily. Many a martyr died along the way, including Charles Lwanga and his companions of Uganda, martyred in 1895. From modest beginnings, there are now well over 13 million Catholics in Uganda—40 percent of the population—and continent-wide, Catholic Church membership rose from 2 million in 1900 to 140 million in 2000. In 2009, when Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI visited Africa, the total had grown to an estimated 158 million. By 2025, one-sixth (230 million) of the world's Catholics are expected to be Africans. Give thanks for the flourishing of the Spirit worldwide.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 25:13b-21; John 21:15-19 (301). "He said this signifying by what kind of death he would glorify God."

Saturday, Jun 04, 2022

EASTER WEEKDAY; SHAVUOT

May the harvest be plentiful

Today is the Jewish festival of Shavuot, the Feast of Weeks. It is the Biblical celebration of the wheat harvest (Exodus 34:22) and, in the Orthodox Jewish tradition, the giving of the Torah to Moses on Mount Sinai. It's called "weeks" because it commemorates the counting of seven weeks from the barley harvest to the wheat harvest, or from the Passover to today. It has a parallel in our Christian tradition of counting from Easter to Pentecost, a word that means "fiftieth," celebrated tomorrow. One of the modern customs celebrated on Shavuot is presenting to the community babies born during the year. Let's pray for all the babies we know who have made it to birth this year.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 28:16-20, 30-31; John 21:20-25 (302). "There are also many other things that Jesus did."

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time
