SOCIAL CONCERNS

Janine Cavanagh
jcavanagh@sjmillstone.com

Social Ministry is the heartbeat of a living faith. It provides us with the opportunity to live our faith and radiate the love and light of our Lord Jesus Christ on the altar of our lives. It is what St. Augustine succinctly stated when he said, "We are called to be what we receive" — the tangible love of Christ. Social Ministry in our parish provides you with myriad opportunities to do just this. We invite you to explore some of these ministries listed below. Take some time to read, reflect and pray about where the Lord is calling you to serve and be served

The Appalachia Mission - This Week's Poor Box –

Donations will support our parish's mission trip to West Virginia, from June 11 to June 18. Our eight adult volunteers will be building one house and repairing several others. The Appalachia Mission - Wayne County Work Camp's ministry provides a service experience for our parishioners who desire a "hands-on" opportunity to put their faith into action by serving those who are in desperate need. The Work Camp's mission is to work to make homes warm, safe, and dry. We also run a Christmas Mission which donates gifts for the children as part of our Advent Giving Tree Ministry and organizes a party for the families of the children receiving the gifts.

Saint Vincent de Paul Food Pantry – The Perth Amboy food pantry needs summer volunteers. The Food Pantry provides food for an average of 186 clients a week. Volunteers manage the pantry every Saturday from 9:30 am to 12:45 pm and our parishioners are a part of this volunteer base. Can you spare one morning each month? If So, email Terry Lee at terrytulee25@gmail.com

HOME of Somerset County, Inc.: Formerly Interfaith Hospitality Network, HOME serves at-risk families who are homeless or are housing unstable. Volunteers are the backbone of the agency, providing shelter, meals, financial support, and resources. Our parish is a proud supporter and host of HOME here at Saint Joseph Church.

Becca's Friends: Established by our parish in the spring of 2013 Becca's Friends Ministry offers monthly social events for the adult special needs community of Saint Joseph's and the surrounding Hillsborough area. This social group welcomes new members on two levels: the parishioners who host and organize the group's activities, and the adults who participate in the social activities.

To find out about these or any of our 20+ Social Concerns Ministries, please contact Jeanine.

St. Francis of Assisi, Metuchen.

Included in the intentions of this Holy Hour are Deacon Ronal Romario Vega Pastrana, who will be ordained a priest the following day, and the sanctification of all priests of our diocese.

WEEKEND SILENT DIRECTED RETREAT

An experience of personal prayer based on scripture. Daily spiritual direction. Atmosphere of prayerful quiet.

$180/weekend; non-refundable deposit $80

Proof of COVID vaccination is required at time of registration

GRACE FOR SHAME:

FREE TO LOVE AND BE LOVED

We are called by God to love, but the experience of shame limits our ability to give and receive that amazing, grace filled love. Unaddressed shame has destructive consequences for individuals, causing or worsening depression, anxiety, addictions and aggressive behavior. Shame impacts our friendships as well as the relationships in our families and faith communities.

Those who attend will be able to define shame, explore its impact, learn what scripture teaches about shame, and most importantly be able to more fully receive and more freely share the Good News of God's great love.

Wednesday, June 8th from 7-9PM

$20-$30 as you are able

Embody your faith

Being church is a different identity than simply going to church. If we are truly the Body of Christ, then we embrace this identity with a sense of purpose. Saint Paul describes the church as a body with many parts that function for the sake of the whole. Some of us have obvious gifts like preaching, teaching, or offering a healing presence. Others may benefit from prayer, spiritual direction, faith sharing, or a discernment retreat to come to an awareness of the particular service to which we're called. Joy is in the discovery of the Spirit's personal invitation to you.

SOLEMNITY OF PENTECOST

TODAY'S READINGS: Day: Acts 2:1-11; 1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13 or Romans 8:8-17; John 20:19-23 (63). "There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord."

Monday, Jun 06, 2022

You will not be orphaned

Although the devotion to Mary as "Mother of the Church" is ancient, today's memorial is relatively new—having been instituted in 2018 by Pope Francis when he decreed it will be celebrated annually on the Monday after Pentecost Sunday—to "encourage the growth of the maternal sense of the church." Reflect on how you can "mother" the church—as well as your family and friends, your community and work place, and even yourself. You don't have to be or have a mother in the traditional sense to know how to offer loving care. Standing beneath the cross, said Francis, Mary "welcomed all people in the person of the beloved disciple as sons and daughters"—that means you, too.

MEMORIAL OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY, MOTHER OF THE CHURCH

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 3:9-15, 20 or Acts 1:12-14; John 19:25-34 (572a). "He said to his mother, 'Woman, behold, your son.'"

Tuesday, Jun 07, 2022

Let go and let God

On this day in 1925, Blessed Matt Talbot—40 years sober—died enroute to Sunday Mass. Though Alcoholics Anonymous wouldn't exist for another 10 years, Talbot had already discerned the central truth of AA's Twelve Steps. "It's as hard to give up the drink as it is to raise the dead to life again," he said. "But both are possible and even easy for our Lord. We have only to depend on him." Talbot is the patron of those who struggle with alcohol addiction. Ask his intercession for yourself or another who needs to kick a harmful habit.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 17:7-16; Matthew 5:13-16 (360). "Your light must shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your heavenly Father."

Wednesday, Jun 08, 2022

Honor and emulate a trailblazer for racial justice

On this day in 1910, Father Stephen Theobald was ordained for the Archdiocese of Saint Paul-Minneapolis, the first black diocesan priest ordained on U.S. soil. Theobald was born in Guyana in 1874 and later worked as a journalist in Canada before being recruited to Minnesota by Archbishop John Ireland, a fierce racial justice advocate. For his entire priestly career, Theobald served at Saint Peter Claver Catholic Church in Saint Paul, the only black parish in the state. He also served in the local chapter of the NAACP, advocating tirelessly for black lives. May we all follow his lasting example of saying "Yes!" to God and "No!" to injustice.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 18:20-39; Matthew 5:17-19 (361). "Let it be known this day that you are God in Israel and that I am your servant."

Thursday, Jun 09, 2022

Sing with the Syrian saint

Although you may never have heard of him, today's saint left a lasting imprint on the church. Ephrem of Syria (306-373) is known for his writing—primarily for works that battled heresies—but even more so for introducing singing as a form of worship and education. Known as the Harp of the Holy Spirit, he cleverly wrote lyrics that educated the faithful against false teaching. Syriac churches still sing hymns that originated with him. The next time a hymn moves you, say a prayer of thanksgiving to Saint Ephrem.

MEMORIAL OF EPHREM OF SYRIA, DEACON, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 18:41-46; Matthew 5:20-26 (362). "[B]e reconciled with your brother, and then come and offer your gift."

Friday, Jun 10, 2022

Let's get our bearings

"Why are we here?" is an age-old question. As Dostoyevsky writes in The Brothers Karamazov: "The mystery of human existence lies not in just staying alive, but in finding something to live for." One might think that Christians have it easy because Jesus clearly spells out our purpose for living: "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind . . . [and] you shall love your neighbor as yourself" (Matt. 22:37-39). But on a day-to-day basis in any given situation, it is not always obvious what the loving response is and whether we are prepared to offer it. That is where prayer comes in. It can provide just the right environment for hearing God's finest whispers leading to the path of love.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 19:9a, 11-16; Matthew 5:27-32 (363).

"There was a tiny whispering sound. . . . A voice said to him, 'Elijah, why are you here?'"

Saturday, Jun 11, 2022

One, holy, catholic, apostolic

In our recitation of the Nicene Creed at Sunday Mass, we profess our belief in "one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church." Those four adjectives are called the four "marks" or "attributes" of the church. One, because despite the many divisions and denominations of Christianity all worship one God, one Spirit, and one Lord, Jesus Christ. Holy, because, like sacred objects, the church is set apart for God's purpose. Catholic, from the Greek word for "universal," because it is for all without excluding any group or class of people. Apostolic, because it arises out of the efforts of the apostles, both the original 12 and others, like today's saint, Barnabas, who were later named apostles. And like you and me, called today to embody these same attributes.

MEMORIAL OF BARNABAS, APOSTLE

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 11:21b-26; 13:1-3; Matthew 5:33-37 (580; Gospel 364). "Let your 'Yes' mean 'Yes,' and your 'No' mean 'No.'"

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time
