READINGS FOR NEXT WEEK

Genesis 18:20-32
Colossians 2:12-14
Luke 11:1-13

Behind the Scenes of This Week's Readings Today's Gospel - Luke 10:38-42

Previously in this chapter, the scholar asks what he must do to obtain eternal life. When Jesus asks him what the law says, the man answers, "...to love God with all your heart, being, strength and mind...and to love your neighbor as yourself (v.27)." Jesus then tells the parable of the Good Samaritan and this is followed immediately by the story of Martha and Mary. By placing these narratives in this order, Luke is painting a picture of what this commandment looks like in real life. Mary, Martha and the Samaritan, by their actions illustrate for us both parts of this commandment.

- Dorothy Gearon

Dear All – Christ's peace!

This Summer's Three Service Trips – Two grace-laden service trips have been completed. The third started last week. Following our adults' June building trip to West Virginia, our Young Adult Ministry returned from an exhilarating and exasperating week of service and exploration near the Texas/Tamaulipas border town of McAllen, Texas. Our high school service trip started last Saturday evening when the Memphis-bound bus, carrying 40 students and their chaperones, pulled out of our parking lot. Please say a Hail Mary each day for those on the trip – that the trip will help them to become even better priests, prophets, and kings/queens, and that they will stay safe and open to grace.

Helping the Sisters Help Ukraine's Refugees – Half of the donations you made are still available to help the Sisters help Ukraine's refugees. A considerable portion of the aid will go toward supporting (and, we hope, expanding) the full-service day-care center in Winnica, Ukraine. Right now, the Sisters are entering into their General Chapter – a VERY big deal in the world of religious life. Their services to the refugees are continuing as always. But, for now, I am giving Mother General a break from our questions and conversations, as she is singularly overloaded. We will have more news in a few weeks.

Outreach to Young Families – It is official! Starting in September, Liz Loughlin will coordinate our outreach and programs for parents with young children. Welcome, Liz!

Blessings of Brains and Artifacts – Save the Date – at the 11:30 Mass on Sunday, September 11, just before the parish picnic

With sincere hopes that your Fourth of July was excellent, that you can anticipate an August that can really be August, and that you and your most beloved – whether it is a difficult time or a delightful time – are feeling His peace in a big way this summer.

Father Hank

You're welcome

The guest room is a modern convenience. It's often a place for shoe-horning out-of-town relatives amid the exercise equipment and stored off-season decorations. In the world of the Bible, hospitality meant more—extending welcome was a religious act, most frequently offered to strangers passing through town. Jesus urges his followers to practice radical hospitality to the poor, sick, prisoners, strangers, and socially marginalized: to all who are, like us, just passing through this life. How does your parish practice visible hospitality? How do you personally make the stranger and outsider feel welcome?

SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 18:1-10a; Colossians 1:24-28; Luke 10:38-42 (108). "Let me bring you a little food, that you may refresh yourselves."

Hang in there

Relentless is a good word to describe 16th-century soldier-turned-priest and patron of hospitals Saint Camillus de Lellis, who simply could not stop caring for the sick—even getting up from his own deathbed to see if other patients needed help. He suffered from a leg disease his whole life, but it was another illness—a gambling addiction—that led to his conversion, after he literally lost his shirt and had to take work in a Capuchin friary. In his experience of sickness and healing, he discovered his calling to heal others. The order he founded continues to minister to the sick today. May you find your own vocation in your afflictions and be inspired to pursue it with passion.

MEMORIAL OF CAMILLUS DE LELLIS, PRIEST, FOUNDER

TODAY'S READINGS: Micah 6:1-4, 6-8; Matthew 12:38-42 (395). "Teacher, we wish to see a sign from you."

Cultivate contemplation and simplicity

Carmel gets mentioned throughout the Old Testament, as a settlement and a mountain, both named for lush vegetation that grew there. The former was the homeland of King David's wife, Abigail. The latter was the holy mountain, dotted with caves, where Elijah confronted the false prophets of Baal. These caves also attracted early hermits who would go on to found the Carmelite religious order. Carmelite spirituality—in particular, contemplation and a simple lifestyle—was the touchstone of many influential Catholic saints, including John of the Cross, Teresa of Ávila, and Thérèse of Lisieux. How might your own spiritual life benefit from an increase in contemplation or simplicity?

TODAY'S READINGS: Micah 7:14-15, 18-20; Matthew 12:46-50 (396).

"Shepherd your people with your staff, the flock of your inheritance."

Bounce back

Years back, Timex had a popular slogan claiming that their watches "could take a licking and keep on ticking." No disrespect intended, but that truly could be an epitaph for the courageous Saint Apollinaris, who suffered endless beatings during the Roman persecutions of the early church yet refused to back down or abandon his ministry or his flock. Though his steadfastness eventually led to martyrdom, he lives on in the church's collective memory and admiration. Next time life knocks you down, recall Apollinaris and get back into the ring!

MEMORIAL OF APOLLINARIS, BISHOP, MARTYR

TODAY'S READINGS: Jeremiah 1:1, 4-10; Matthew 13:1-9 (397).

"Some seed fell on rich soil, and produced fruit, a hundred or sixty or thirtyfold."

Overachiever for God

We're approaching the dog days of summer, but if you're tempted to retreat from work, Saint Lawrence of Brindisi might inspire you otherwise. This overachieving saint was a brilliant linguist and preacher who held positions of leadership in his religious order, the Capuchin Franciscans. He founded multiple friaries, defended against heresies, and performed diplomatic missions. He died of apparent heat exhaustion following a diplomatic mission—working tirelessly until the end. Saint Lawrence poured his all into upholding the faith. Take a moment to consider how you, too, might uplift the faith.

MEMORIAL OF LAWRENCE OF BRINDISI, CAPUCHIN PRIEST, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

TODAY'S READINGS: Jeremiah 2:1-3, 7-8, 12-13; Matthew 13:10-17 (398). "But blessed are your eyes, because they see, and your ears, because they hear."

It's a paradox

Experiencing God is awesome and incomprehensible—what Catholic theologian Karl Rahner described as "Holy Mystery" and "Infinite Horizon." And yet, this very same God draws close to us, becoming fully human to dwell with us. The experiences of Mary Magdalene with Jesus clearly demonstrate this. Having just saved the world, Jesus, in his first post-Resurrection appearance, comes not in a blaze of glory, but in the tender encounter with Mary and the very intimate calling of her name. Allow yourself to rest in this paradox, knowing that ours is not to figure out the mystery but to be embraced by it!

FEAST OF MARY MAGDALENE, DISCIPLE OF THE LORD

TODAY'S READINGS: Song of Songs 3:1-4b; John 20:1-2, 11-18 (603). "Jesus said to her, 'Mary!' She turned and said to him in Hebrew, 'Rabbouni,' which means Teacher."

A saint for all seasons

Bridget of Sweden, born in 1303, did it all: married at the age of 13, mother of eight children she raised with loving care; widow, ascetic, and member of the Franciscan Third Order; foundress of the Order of the Most Holy Savior; pilgrim to countless shrines, model of simplicity, prophet against church abuses; counselor to king and pope alike, devoted servant of the poor, renowned mystic and author—truly a remarkable woman, a saint for all seasons. Pope Saint John Paul II rightfully proclaimed her co-patron of Europe in 1999. She is an inspiration and reminder that whatever your role or station in life, sanctity can be found.

MEMORIAL OF BRIDGET, FOUNDRESS

TODAY'S READINGS: Jeremiah 7:1-11; Matthew 13:24-30 (400). "How lovely is your dwelling place, Lord, mighty God! I had rather one day in your courts than a thousand elsewhere."
