CATECHETICAL SUNDAY September 18, 2022

Every year since 1935, on the third Sunday of September, the Church acknowledges and honors the dedication of the catechists in the parish community who work to share and teach their faith to our children. It is also a time to honor families and all who are committed to sharing their faith. This year the theme of Catechetical Sunday is "This is my Body given for you." This year's theme highlights the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist. A big THANK YOU to all our catechists, volunteers, families and staff who work so hard for our CCD program!

More recently we have been able to host them at our building in Millstone Borough. Now, we need your assistance more than ever! Please see the information below regarding how you can be involved.

RISE-INTERFAITH ORGANIZATION

We received this letter from RISE, an Interfaith Organization in Highland Park, which provides services to refugees and immigrants. Perhaps you might be able to help. Contact: INTERFAITH-RISE.org

Dear Interfaith-RISE,

I went to the warehouse yesterday, to try to find one new pot for a recently arrived asylum seeking family from Peru. For the first time in months, I found the kitchen wares section of the Interfaith-RISE Warehouse nearly bare.

It is possible that we have depleted the total amount of 'extra' stuff that people have in their basements and attics, as we've set up well over 100 homes in full since last October and assisted with home set-up and furniture/housewares contributions for easily another 100 homes.

We will soon have to start purchasing lots of pots and pans, sheets, blankets etc... if we don't have an influx of donations soon!

I would ask our volunteers, statewide, to please request from your churches, mosques, synagogues, temples, community groups that we are in real need of household goods and bedding, as well as furniture. We are NOT in need of clothing. Please see sign up genius below for more details of Items needed.

All donations can be dropped off at 127 Raritan Ave, Highland Pk, NJ on weekdays 10-3pm If you happen to find it closed, please bring them to the Reformed Church of Highland pk. Please label for Interfaith Rise.

Thanks and peace! Seth!

RIDES NEEDED

We really need help with rides. If you are available and can help please sign up. We have struggled this summer to get volunteers to sign up. It has been very hard. Thank You to all the dedicated volunteers that have helped multiple times in one day or in a given week. These volunteer opportunities are ongoing. Links will remain the same and slots will be updated consistently. Please check back and sign up for open slots as your availability changes or allows. Interfaith-RISE: Rides Needed \(signupgenius.com\)

DONATION MANAGEMENT & PREPARATION

We have been setting up multiple houses the past couple of weeks and need help with set up or organizing and packing up boxes for the families. If you are available Mon- Friday anytime 10-3pm Please sign up.

In addition, we need extra volunteers to help organize and sort a recent delivery of over 80 boxes of donations! The boxes include a variety of goods including clothes, non-perishables, first-aid supplies, etc. We need help organizing these donations so that they can be distributed to those in need. Please see the sign up below, time slots are flexible!

FURNITURE

We are still in need of a lot of furniture. We especially need small couches, twin and full beds and mattresses. Dining Tables. Dressers.

If you are interested in donating, please send an email to furniture@interfaithrise.org with a description and photos and contact info. While we are very grateful for all offers, all offers cannot be accepted because the apartments are small and space is limited. We will get back to you as soon as possible.

HOUSEWARES

If you are interested in donating general houseware, please send an email to housewares@interfaithrise.org with a description and photos of the items.

PLEASE DO NOT BRING OR LEAVE ANY ITEMS AT ST JOSEPH CHURCH OR PARISH CENTER THANK YOU.

Tell the greatest stories ever

On this Catechetical Sunday, we lift up those who give instruction as religion teachers, homilists, RCIA directors, spiritual writers, and retreat leaders. Catechism doesn't have to be dull. Fantasy writer George MacDonald made spiritual realities come alive. His stories inspired C.S. Lewis, J.R.R. Tolkien, Mark Twain, and J.M. Barrie to do the same. Want better leadership in government, businesses, parishes? Look for good storytellers. As Pope Francis said in his 2020 address to communicators, "Each of us knows different stories that have the fragrance of the Gospel, that have borne witness to the Love that transforms life. These stories cry out to be shared!"

TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY'S READINGS: Amos 8:4-7; 1 Timothy 2:1-8; Luke 16:1-13 (135). "I ask that supplications, prayers, petitions, and thanksgivings be offered . . . for kings and for all in authority."

See the miracles in everyday life

Little is known about the life of Januarius, a bishop and martyr who died in the year 305, but he's famous for a miracle that continues to happen all these centuries later. Three times a year in the cathedral in Naples, Italy, the faithful gather to witness a sample of his blood, kept in sealed glass, liquify and even bubble. There is no definitive explanation, and the blood cannot be studied since the vial is not allowed to be opened out of fear of permanent damage. Sound incredible? Some say yes. But does it even compare to the extraordinary tenets of your faith? Now that's something much more consequential to marvel—every day of the year.

MEMORIAL OF JANUARIUS, BISHOP, MARTYR

TODAY'S READINGS: Proverbs 3:27-34; Luke 8:16-18 (449). "For there is nothing hidden that will not become visible, and nothing secret that will not be known and come to light."

Companions on the journey

South Korea has one of the largest Catholic populations in all of Asia. Andrew Kim Tae-gŏn—the first Korean priest—played a role. As did Paul Chŏng Ha-sang, a lay Catholic born of a martyr who was martyred himself. In fact, the birth of the Korean church is a laypeople's triumph. Pope John Paul II stressed this fact during his 1984 canonization of Tae-gŏn, Ha-sang, and 101 other martyrs: "Even though the Christians in the first half century had only two priests from China to assist them for a time, they deepened their unity in Christ through prayer and fraternal love. . . . The splendid flowering of the Church in Korea today is indeed the fruit of the heroic witness of the Martyrs." We, too, are called to be companions to the martyrs in building up the Body of Christ.

MEMORIAL OF ANDREW KIM TAE-GŒN, PRIEST, AND PAUL CHŒNG HA-SANG, AND COMPANIONS, MARTYRS

TODAY'S READINGS: Proverbs 21:1-6, 10-13; Luke 8:19-21 (450). "My mother and my brothers are those who hear the word of God and act on it."

Even tax collectors need a patron

Though we don't know much about the apostle Matthew—even whether he was the actual author of the gospel that bears his name—we do know that he was a tax collector. And because of this, he was persona non grata in the Jewish community. It was the occupying Romans who demanded those taxes, so Matthew and his fellow taxmen were seen as collaborators. From the very beginning of his ministry, Jesus laid out the invitation to break out of righteous categories and see beyond narrow prejudices. A reminder for us to do the same.

FEAST OF MATTHEW, APOSTLE AND EVANGELIST

TODAY'S READINGS: Ephesians 4:1-7, 11-13; Matthew 9:9-13 (643). "I did not come to call the righteous but sinners."

Celebrate Earth, our common home

Many Catholics are still getting used to the Season of Creation, which spans the period from September 1 (World Day of Prayer for the Care for Creation) to October 4 (Feast of Saint Francis of Assisi). Initiated in 1989 and embraced by Catholics in 2015, this ecumenical season is meant to celebrate care for our common home. Leaders encourage the faithful to pray and take action to honor and preserve our planet. With more than a week left of the season, there's time to celebrate in your own style: be it a prayerful outdoor time, an environmental letter to a legislator, or a look at the ecology encyclical, Laudato Si'. Seasonofcreation.org offers even more ideas.

TODAY'S READINGS: Ecclesiastes 1:2-11; Luke 9:7-9 (452). "But Herod said, 'John I beheaded. Who then is this about whom I hear such things?'"

Scripture makes Billboard's Top 10

We don't often see Bible songs hit the pop music charts. But a song by singer-songwriter and social activist Pete Seeger did just that. Written in the late 1950s, the song "Turn! Turn! Turn!" would explode to international popularity in 1965 when recorded by the Byrds. Not bad for lyrics written well over 2,000 years ago! The song is based on the book of Ecclesiastes 3:1-8. Not every popular use of the Bible turns out well, but Seeger's did, perhaps because he left the verses largely intact. Consider other scripture passages that are music to your ears.

TODAY'S READINGS: Ecclesiastes 3:1-11; Luke 9:18-22 (453). "There is an appointed time for everything, and a time for every thing under the heavens."

Saturday, Sep 24, 2022

The clock is ticking

The Spanish philosopher Miguel de Unamuno is quoted as having said the entire gospel came down to this phrase: "Wake up!" That's something we can all keep in mind and take to heart when we find ourselves simply going through the motions, sleepwalking through the day. The Benedictines put it another way: "Keep death ever before you." Now that's a wake-up call if there ever was one! Do something good, kind, generous—and do it today, while there is still time!

TODAY'S READINGS: Ecclesiastes 11:9—12:8; Luke 9:43b-45 (454). "Pay attention to what I am telling you."
