THE PAVILION

The pandemic has exposed our impressive affection for outdoor activities. Even as COVID wanes, thank God, we still like to gather outside. Attendance at outdoor Masses remains very strong. Many ministries prefer to hold their meetings under the tent. Our SAGES croupiers have learned how to deal in the breeze. Youth Ministry makes exceptional use of the tent and some of Becca's Friends' best events have taken place there. Our "O Holy Nights" events, which are fully outdoors, center in the tent space, even though our insurance policy requires us to leave the top off from mid-November until mid-April. We love the outdoors.

The tent has been a major blessing for these pandemic years. It has truly changed parish life and we are in debt to those who provided it. But the tent has a limited lifespan. And the tent would get even more use if it were larger, had better lights and power, and could stay up all year.

The pavilion, as currently envisioned, will do everything we want the tent to do. It will last, God willing, for a century or more. It will be 30 percent bigger than the tent, will be useable 12 months of the year, will have all the outlets we could need and, we hope, a huge fireplace to ground winter activities.

The pavilion promises to enrich our shared prayer, our efforts to console and challenge one another, and our experience of community. It promises to help us grow as priests, prophets, and monarchs.

Your generous contributions to the weekend collection baskets will NOT finance the project. Restricted gifts will pay for the pavilion. People who are very enthusiastic about the project have already donated about $100,000. Others have pledged an additional $90,000. The project is likely to cost a little more than $300,000 and we will not start until we have all the money we need to pay for it. There will be no credit, financing, or loans. Once it is built, the operations budget will pay for the upkeep. But since there is no HVAC or plumbing, and since it will be a minimalist structure, the upkeep expenses should be quite low.

If the diocese approves our petition, and if our contractors can secure the materials, we should be able to break ground next spring. (NB – The vendors we have contacted warn us of a six-month waiting period.) The pavilion will be located between the parish offices and the rectory driveway.

Please let me know if you have any questions, concerns, or recommendations.

Fr Hank

POOR BOX

September 4 – 18 – Saint Francis Inn

Your generous donations will support The Saint Francis Inn which has been serving meals to the neediest individuals and families in Philadelphia since 1979. They rely on the generosity of churches and individuals to donate food so that daily meals can be served. Volunteers from our Parish travel several times a year to help cook, serve, and clean on the Mission of Mercy. This is where the iced tea and lemonade is delivered.

Value life above all

What does it mean to renounce possessions? Monastic tradition recognizes that even owning a spoon is spiritually dangerous if the spoon possesses us back. Most of us own far more than utensils. We might consider the example of Lutheran humanitarian Dr. Albert Schweitzer. He wasn't a perfect man nor a flawless theologian. Schweitzer got a lot wrong about his medical mission in Africa. But he got one thing very right: Reverence for life is paramount, and society's resources should serve life as its primary ethical foundation. Place your worldly treasure at the service of life.

TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY'S READINGS: Wisdom 9:13-18b; Philemon 9-10, 12-17; Luke 14:25-33 (129). "Anyone of you who does not renounce all his possessions cannot be my disciple."

Home is where the charity is

Today's commemoration of International Day of Charity got its start in Hungary to memorialize the death of Saint Mother Teresa (who died in 1997); the United Nations took it worldwide in 2012. The Missionaries of Charity, the order Mother Teresa founded with 12 members in 1950, continue her legacy by serving the "poorest of the poor." Now in 139 countries, the more than 5,000 sisters run orphanages and homes for those dying of AIDS, and care for refugees, the blind, disabled, aged, alcoholics, the poor and homeless, and victims of floods, epidemics, and famine. Despite the breadth of these efforts, Mother Teresa always said, "Love begins at home." Start your charitable activity there and watch where it takes you.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Corinthians 5:1-8; Luke 6:6-11 (437). "I ask you, is it lawful to do good on the sabbath rather than to do evil, to save life rather than to destroy it?"

Let the children come

With Labor Day ending the summer, today is the first day of classes for millions of U.S. schoolchildren. Christian fantasy writer Madeleine L'Engle—who died on this day in 2007—once made a keen observation, which is helpful as children's faith formation classes begin anew: "No wonder our youth [are] confused and in pain; they long for God, for the transcendent, and they are offered, far too often, either piety or sociology, neither of which meets their needs." They encounter churches "which have become buildings that are a safe place to go to escape the awful [awesome] demands of God." Pray for parish religious ed programs today.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Corinthians 6:1-11; Luke 6:12-19 (438). "Everyone in the crowd sought to touch him."

Wednesday, Sep 07, 2022

Honor those who preserved the treasure

On this day in 1303, Pope Boniface VIII was attacked in his hometown of Anagni, Italy, where he was sought out for his refusal to grant favors to the French monarchy. He briefly escaped with the help of the townsfolk, but died three weeks later in Rome, refusing to back down in the face of the monarch's attempts to control the church. Pray for all those who have faced persecution and even death so that we could worship freely and without fear.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Corinthians 7:25-31; Luke 6:20-26 (439).

"Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude and insult you, and denounce your name as evil on account of the Son of Man."

Thursday, Sep 08, 2022

Born free

Catholics have dozens of ways to honor Mary, and today's celebration of her birth fits into that larger picture of love and reverence. Today's date is nine months after the December 8 Feast of the Immaculate Conception and is also meant to celebrate Mary's sinless condition from her very beginning. Today's feast day tends to fly below the radar in the U.S. church, but in Mangalore, India, Catholics hold flower-festooned processions, pray novenas, and prepare festive meals. It's a good day anywhere to consider Mary's radical embrace of her calling and ask her help to do the same in our lives.

FEAST OF THE NATIVITY OF MARY

TODAY'S READINGS: Micah 5:1-4a or Romans 8:28-30; Matthew 1:1-16, 18-23 (636). "She will bear a son and you are to name him Jesus, because he will save his people from their sins."

Check for blind spots

Saint Peter Claver, S.J. (1580-1654) spent most of his life in Cartagena, Columbia ministering to enslaved people arriving at the ports. He left a lasting legacy that inspired the formation of the Knights of Peter Claver, the largest African-American Catholic fraternal order in the United States; the Apostles of the Sea, who continue to minister to seafarers around the world; and the Missionary Sisters of St. Peter Claver, who serve the poor, particularly in Africa. However, like any of us—even saints—Peter had his blind spots. Though he worked tirelessly to serve those arriving in shackles, he himself enslaved people. Many Catholics at the time spoke out against slavery; Peter did not, nor did the majority of the Catholic hierarchy. Enlightenment takes time. Like Peter Claver, show compassion as you strive for clearer vision.

MEMORIAL OF PETER CLAVER, JESUIT PRIEST

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Corinthians 9:16-19, 22b-27; Luke 6:39-42 (441). "Why do you notice the splinter in your brother's eye, but do not perceive the wooden beam in your own?"

Saturday, Sep 10, 2022

Help the pain

Since 2003, World Suicide Prevention Day has been observed by dozens of countries. Hosted by the International Association for Suicide Prevention, the World Federation for Mental Health, and the World Health Organization, today is marked by activities designed to make people aware of the human cost of suicide and the means of prevention. For instance, by some estimates, 22 American service veterans take their own lives every day. We've got to do everything in our power to help these souls who have been so damaged by the horror of war. Check with your local VA to see how you can help.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Corinthians 10:14-22; Luke 6:43-49 (442). "Why do you call me, 'Lord, Lord,' but not do what I command?"

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time
